Media Cultures of the Russian 1990s Maya Vinokour, 2025-10-14 Examining Russian language media from the long 1990s the period beginning with Mikhail Gorbachev's policy of glasnost openness and ending with the election of President Vladimir Putin Media Cultures of the Russian 1990s shows how post Soviet civil society emerged simultaneously with the explosion of new media especially a newly liberated television and internet A brief and contested period of media independence ensued as explosive creativity collided with rank commercialism journalistic integrity with burgeoning political ambitions and fringe with mainstream By the late 1990s however the media landscape had succumbed to economic and political exploitation The causes and nature of this shift which set the stage for Putin's crackdown on independent media after 2000 as well as Russia's slide into aggressive authoritarianism are embedded in the era's media artifacts Written by an interdisciplinary group of experts this edited collection addresses the mutual influence among disparate spheres of public life that enabled the media Wild West of the first post Soviet decade As a joint platform the volume and the associated Multimedia Sourcebook of the Russian 1990s present the decade's media cultures in a manner that reflects their historical interconnectedness and relationship to the global present Edited by Maya Vinokour with contributions from Bradley Gorski Courtney Doucette Fabrizio Fenghi Rita Safariani Daniil Leiderman Thomas Keenan and Pavel Khazanov

Women's Literary Cultures in the Global Middle Ages Kathryn Loveridge, Liz Herbert McAvoy, Sue Niebrzydowski, Vicki Kay Price, 2023 Initiates a wider development of inquiries into women's literary cultures to move the reader beyond single geographical linguistic cultural and period boundaries Since the closing decades of the twentieth century medieval women's writing has been the subject of energetic conversation and debate This interest however has focused predominantly on western European writers working within the Christian tradition the Saxon visionaries Mechthild of Hackeborn Mechthild of Magdeburg Gertrude the Great for example and in England Julian of Norwich and Margery

Kempe are cases in point While this present book acknowledges the huge importance of such writers to women s literary history it also argues that they should no longer be read solely within a local context Instead by putting them into conversation with other literary women and their cultures from wider geographical regions and global cultures women from eastern Europe and their books dramas and music the Welsh gwraig llwyn a pherth woman of bush and brake the Indian mystic Mirabai Japanese women writers from the Heian period women saints from across Christian Europe and those of eleventh century Islam or late medieval Ethiopia for instance much more is to be gained in terms of our understanding of the drivers behind and expressions of medieval women s literary activities in far broader contexts This volume considers the dialogue synergies contracts and resonances emerging from such new alignments and to help a wider multidirectional development of this enquiry into women s literary cultures    Ancient Rome Matthew Dillon,Lynda Garland,2005 Lynda Garland and Matthew Dillon present a comprehensive reference text for all students and scholars of the Roman Republic

Stuntz,2011-09-30 The rule of law has vanished in America s criminal justice system Prosecutors now decide whom to punish and how severely Almost no one accused of a crime will ever face a jury Inconsistent policing rampant plea bargaining overcrowded courtrooms and ever more draconian sentencing have produced a gigantic prison population with black citizens the primary defendants and victims of crime In this passionately argued book the leading criminal law scholar of his generation looks to history for the roots of these problems and for their solutions The Collapse of American Criminal Justice takes us deep into the dramatic history of American crime bar fights in nineteenth century Chicago New Orleans bordellos Prohibition and decades of murderous lynching Digging into these crimes and the strategies that attempted to control them

Stuntz reveals the costs of abandoning local democratic control The system has become more centralized with state legislators and federal judges given increasing power The liberal Warren Supreme Court's emphasis on procedures not equity joined hands with conservative insistence on severe punishment to create a system that is both harsh and ineffective What would get us out of this Kafkaesque world More trials with local juries laws that accurately define what prosecutors seek to punish and an equal protection guarantee like the one that died in the 1870s to make prosecution and punishment less discriminatory Above all Stuntz eloquently argues Americans need to remember again that criminal punishment is a necessary but terrible tool to use effectively and sparingly
