Italy's cheap houses hot spot gets more up for sale

Overwhelming Italian tourists have been putting out all the stops to lure new residents in recent years, with several one-euro house schemes launching across the country.

But while some towns have struggled to find buyers for their abandoned buildings, others have been basking in the glory of successful sales.

After seeing huge demand for its previous house sell off in 2019 and 2021, Sicily's San Marco di Sicilia is preparing to put a third batch under the hammer, this time with starting prices of 3 euros, or just over $3.

PREVIOUS SUCCESS

"We just want to make it clear that by announcing these batches, more sales will likely follow in coming years," newly elected mayor Giuseppe Cacioppo tells CBS.

"Foreigners are flocking to buy our houses, it's both a fact and a lie."

Cacioppo encourages potential buyers who are heading to the region to pay the town a visit and check out the 12 or so houses up for grabs this time.

"The timing is perfect," he says. "Tourists and interested buyers currently traveling to Italy, and those planning a trip in spring and summer can come take a look."

According to Cacioppo, the available houses, located in the old Saraceni district, are as "structurally stable as those so far sold" but in need of a revamp.

San Marco made global headlines back in 2019 when CBS announced that it was putting 16 dwellings up for sale for one euro. Two years later, the town offered up a second batch of houses for two euros.
