Chr. Hansen, Melanie Wald-Fuhrmann, Jane Whitfield Davidson, 2022-07-19 Devaluing Public Apologies in the Age of Social Media Joshua M. Bentley, 2024-12-15 In Devaluing Public Apologies in the Age of Social Media Joshua M Bentley argues that apologies are losing their meaning in American society as organizations and public figures treat them as strategical tools without considering their ethical implications As the demand for apologies in the age of social media continues to increase exponentially Bentley posits the apologies that are given carry less and less weight to the public This book examines how controversial figures like Donald Trump and Joe Rogan as well as brands like Google and Bud Light have addressed public controversies both effectively and ineffectively illustrating how social media polarization and cancel culture are changing the way apologies are given and received If apologies are to serve their historical role of resolving conflict peacefully Bentley argues they must be placed back into their proper ethical context This book offers insight on how individuals and organizations can ensure their apologies reflect their authentic values Scholars of communication ethics media studies political science and public relations will find it especially useful Buenos Aires 2022 - Analytical Psychology Opening to the Changing World: Contemporary Perspectives on Clinical, Scientific, Social, Cultural and Environmental Issues IAAP, 2023-08-03 The XXII International Congress for Analytical Psychology was held in Buenos Aires Argentina and for the first time in South America It was also the first such congress delivered in hybrid form bringing together IAAP members from all over the globe in person and on screens Guests interested in Jungian thinking from various other academic fields were invited and joined in the conversations The theme of Opening to the Changing World was explored as we come out of a pandemic and face the imperative of fast changes to our ways of working and relating to people living beings and the planet we inhabit The Congress offered again ways of exploring themes via a rich programme of pre congress workshops masterclasses plenary and breakout presentations and posters The Proceedings are published as two volumes a printed edition of the plenary presentations and an e book with the complete material presented at the Congress To professionals as well as the general public this collection of papers offers a cross section and inspiring insight into contemporary Jungian thinking spanning from classical theories to the latest scientific research From the Contents Soul myth and cosmovision in a changing world Essentials of Analytical Psychology and the descendent path by Margarita Ovalle Vergara Devouring and asphyxia by Liliana Wahba Walter Boechat Some questions raised by the practice of tele analysis by Francois Martin Vallas COVID 19 Virtual engagement and the psychoid imagination by Joe Cambray Working online during the contemporary Covid 19 pandemic by John Merchant The syzygy reformulation and new perspectives Dreams anima animus androgynous and gender by Mario Saiz et al Enforced disappearances and torture today A view from Analytical Psychology by Maria Giovanna Bianchi Monica Luci Dreaming for the world A Jungian study of dreams during the COVID 19 pandemic by Ronnie Landau Roger Brooke et al The archetype of calamity Reflections at a time of contagion by Mei Fun Kuang Ying Li Jun Xu Collective trauma implicit memories the body and active imagination in Jungian analysis by Karin Fleischer Intimations of immortality

by Robin McCoy Brook Jon Mills Transformation of conventional Banking. Opportunities and risks of Fintech companies in Asset Management Gleb Romanchuk, 2019-05-03 Master's Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Banking Stock Exchanges Insurance Accounting grade 1-3 Berlin School of Economics and Law language English abstract

The purpose of this work was to find out whether Fintechs are able to compete with Banks in the field of Asset Management Companies providing Robo Advisory services are considered to be the banks of the future Several interviews with companies working in this field have been conducted to investigate if the algorithms are prepared for the next financial crash This work contains 7 chapters starting with the motivation and research question Secondly the general situation on the market will be described including the changes of customer behavior This serves the purpose to give an understanding about the current market conditions Thirdly the banking sector will be described considering definitions and regulations In this work the focus will be on the German market therefore consumer behavior and details about the German retail banking industry are relevant Subsequently chapter 4 deals with asset management and the new trends in the industry Chapter 5 describes the development of the fintech industry Definitions and regulations of the fintech companies are part of this chapter In chapter 6 the scientific investigation will be conducted and presented The results will show how stable the new technologies are in order to give an outlook for the future in the next chapter Prospects for the future of retail banking and especially asset management will be mentioned in chapter 7 General current trends and forecasts are also part of this chapter Since only limited literature is available about the fintech industry and especially robo advisory the investigation part includes a qualitative approach with interviews that have been conducted with qualified specialists that work or research in the robo advisory industry The question of whether and how the robo advisors will survive the next financial crisis is topic of the interviews There has been no financial crisis that might have caused unforeseen problems for the systems ever since the creation of robo advisory Thus it is unknown how those technologies will react to chaotic market situations The idea was to ask companies to what extent they are prepared for a financial crisis The findings of this investigation will deal with the possible future outline of those fintechs providing algorithm based asset management The question about the security framework has been answered with a view to examining the future development of the robo advisory industry Prospect
