You Shall Know Our Velocity:

You Shall Know Our Velocity Dave Eggers, 2009-11-04 An entertaining and profoundly original San Francisco Chronicle moving and hilarious tale of two friends who fly around the world trying to give away a lot of money and free themselves from a profound loss From the bestselling author of The Circle Nobody writes better than Dave Eggers about young men who aspire to be at the same time authentic and sincere The New York Times Book Review You Shall Know Our Velocity is the work of a wildly talented writer Like Kerouac s book Eggers s could inspire a generation as much as it documents it LA Weekly

You Shall Know Our Velocity Dave Eggers, 2011-05-25 In his first novel Dave Eggers has written a moving and hilarious tale of two friends who fly around the world trying to give away a lot of money and free themselves from a profound loss It reminds us once again what an important necessary talent Dave Eggers is

Ugly White People Stephanie Li, 2023-10-10 Whiteness revealed an analysis of the destructive complacency of white self consciousness White Americans are confronting their whiteness more than ever before with political and social shifts ushering in a newfound racial awareness And with white people increasingly seeing themselves as distinctly racialized not simply as American or human white writers are exposing a self awareness of white racialized behavior from staunch antiracism to virulent forms of xenophobic nationalism Ugly White People explores representations of whiteness from twenty first century white American authors revealing white recognition of the ugly forms whiteness can take Stephanie Li argues that much of the twenty first century has been defined by this rising consciousness of whiteness because of the imminent shift to a majority minority population and the growing diversification of America s political social and cultural institutions The result is literature that more directly grapples with whiteness as its own construct rather than a wrongly assumed norm Li contextualizes a series of literary novels as collectively influenced by changes in racial and political attitudes Turning to works by Dave Eggers Sarah Smarsh J D Vance Claire Messud Ben Lerner and others she traces the responses to white consciousness that breed shared manifestations of ugliness The tension between acknowledging whiteness as an identity built on domination and the failure to remedy inequalities that have proliferated from this founding injustice is often the source of the ugly whiteness portrayed through these narratives The questions posed in Ugly White People about the nature and future of whiteness are vital to understanding contemporary race relations in America From the election of Trump and the rise of white nationalism to Karen memes and the war against critical race theory to the pervasive pattern of behavior among largely liberal leaning whites Li elucidates truths about whiteness that challenge any hope of national unity and most devastatingly the basic humanity of others

The Poetics of Genre in the Contemporary Novel Tim Lanzendörfer, 2015-11-19 The Poetics of Genre in the Contemporary Novel investigates the role of genre in the contemporary novel taking its departure from the observation that numerous contemporary novelists make use of popular genre influences in what are still widely considered to be literary novels it sketches the uses and the value of genre. It suggests the value of a critical look at texts genre use for an analysis of the contemporary moment. From this it develops a broader perspective suggesting the value of genre criticism and taking into view traditional genres such as the bildungsroman and the metafictional novel as well as the kinds of amalgamated forms which have recently come to prominence. In essays discussing a wide range of authors from Steven Hall to Bret Easton Ellis to Colson Whitehead the contributors to the volume develop their own readings of genre's work and valence in the contemporary novel.

Travel and Dislocation in Contemporary American Fiction Alik

Varvogli, 2012-03-12 This book offers a critical study and analysis of American fiction at the beginning of the twenty-first century. It focuses on novels that go outward literally and metaphorically and it concentrates on narratives that take place mainly away from the US's geographical borders. Varvogli draws on current theories of travel, globalization and post-national studies and proposes a dynamic model that will enable scholars to approach contemporary American fiction and assess recent changes and continuities. Concentrating on work by Philip Caputo, Dave Eggers, Norman Rush and Russell Banks the book proposes that American literature's engagement with Africa has shifted and needs to be approached using new methodologies. Novels by Amy Tan, Garrison Keillor, Jonathan Safran Foer and Dave Eggers are examined in the context of travel and globalization and works by Chang-rae Lee, Ethan Canin, Dinaw Mengestu and Jhumpa Lahiri are used as examples of the changing face of the American immigrant novel and the changing meaning of national belonging.

Pacific Automobility Gijs Mom, 2022-09-13 The beginning of the 21st century has seen important shifts in mobility cultures around the world as the West's media-driven car culture has contrasted with existing local mobilities from rickshaws in India and minibuses in Africa to cycling in China. In this expansive volume historian Gijs Mom explores how contemporary mobility has been impacted by social, political and economic forces on a global scale as in light of local mobility cultures the car as an adventure machine seems to lose cultural influence in favor of the car's status character.

Everybody into the Pool Beth Lisick, 2009-10-13 Beth Lisick started out as a homecoming princess with a Crisco-aided tan and a bad perm. And then everything changed. Plunging headlong into America's deepest subcultures while keeping both feet firmly planted in her parents' Leave It to Beaver values, Lisick makes her adult home on the fringe of mainstream culture and finds it rich with paradox and humor. On the one hand she lives in Berkeley with drug dealers and street gangs; on the other she drives a station wagon with a baby seat in the back, makes her own chicken stock and attends ladies luncheons. How exactly did this suburban girl next door end up as one of San Francisco's foremost chroniclers of alternative culture? Lisick explains it all in her hilarious, irreverent bestselling memoir Everybody into the Pool. Fans of David Sedaris and Sarah Vowell will relish Lisick's scathingly funny, smart, very real take on the effluvia
