Zeks Manual:

Index of Technical Publications United States. Department of the Army, 1977 Walker's Manual of Western Corporations , 1988 Walker's Manual of Far Western Corporations & Securities , 1969 The First Socialist Society Geoffrey A. Hosking, 1993

The First Socialist Society is the compelling and often tragic history of what Soviet citizens have lived through from 1917 to the present told with great sympathy and perception It ranges over the changing lives of peasants urban workers and professionals the interaction of Soviet autocrats with the people the character and role of religion law education and literature within Soviet society and the significance and fate of various national groups As the story unfolds we come to understand how the ideas of Marxism have been changed taking on almost unrecognizable forms by unique political and economic circumstances Hosking s analysis of this vast and complex country begins by asking how it was that the first socialist revolution took place in backward autocratic Russia Why were the Bolsheviks able to seize power and hold on to it The core of the book lies in the years of Stalin s rule how did he exercise such unlimited power and how did the various strata of society survive and come to terms with his tyranny The later chapters recount Khrushchev s efforts to reform the worst features of Stalinism and the unpredictable effects of his attempts within the East European satellite countries bringing out elements of socialism that had been obscured or overlaid in the Soviet Union itself And in the aftermath of the long Brezhnev years of stagnation and corruption the question is posed can Soviet society find a way to modify the rigidities inherited from the Stalinist past

Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant, 1995-01-27

Blanche H Gelfant s book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic s skepticism and a writer s belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books A History of the Soviet Union Geoffrey A.
