Taylor Kollman, 2025-04-01 In a world that commodifies feminism is adapting romance novels for small and big screen projects and the Romance Writers Association is evolving to a more inclusive representative group it is imperative for researchers to reevaluate the cultural assumptions and gender norming work happening in the romance genre It is time to question the cultural capital of traditional archetypes explore the experience of romance readers and question how romance and cultural studies researchers create quantitative qualitative and mixed methods research This work centers around a data set collected with a revised version of Janice Radway s Reading the Romance survey that will be shared with all the authors of this anthology By having access to this pool authors will have the opportunity to explore different elements of reader experience and cultural norms in romance fiction and potentially reflect on changes since Janice Radway s seminal work The norms and negotiations readers experience while consuming romance is especially interesting as romancelandia becomes a more mainstream part of popular culture with the popularity of Bridgerton and romance series like Ice Planet Barbarians exploding on BookTok No other book in romance or popular culture studies identifies a data set as the connecting element and to do so creates an exciting opportunity to create a more inclusive study of popular romance offer truly interdisciplinary research on the question of how readers read romance and generate diverse areas of future scholarship This edited volume explores multiple issues in romance fiction based on survey data from real romance readers An updated version of Janice Radway's influential survey looking at romance readers in the early 1980s this time scholars explore romance readers' habits and attitudes in the twenty-first century Each contributor in this volume uses the same survey data to make unique statements about gender intersectionality popular fiction and popular culture By using a common data set but approaching it from different perspectives this unique volume is able to apply multiple methodologies to the same subject Votive Karen

Brooks, 2025-02-01 From bestselling author Karen Brooks comes a story of intrigue and deadly magic when a gifted apprentice candlemaker Tallow morphs into an unwilling female courtesan and assassin The second book in the epic romantasy series The Curse of the Bond Riders The stakes are high for apprentice magical candlemaker Tallow when the powerful Maleovellis become her patrons Realising the apprentice they thought was a boy is actually a girl they clean her dress her in gorgeous robes change her name to Tarlo and tell her she is to practise her candle making for them alone Their patronage is not without advantage they teach her to read write and give her lessons in history science politics etiquette and the ways of the aristocracy But Tallow cannot know that they intend to use her to wipe out the royal bloodline and take the throne Encouraged by the lovely and persuasive Giaconda Tallow learns the arts of love spying disguise and assassination Yet as the Maleovellis' fortunes change she finds that flickering inside her are vague memories fleeting and unstable that taunt and challenge her apparent acceptance of her new life When an old love returns and an attempt is made on Tallow's life she must enter The Limen to live Unexpectedly someone else also enters a new Bond Rider whose pledge is set to change the face of the world forever Hero Ever After Kait Nolan, 2025-08-22 I never meant to be anyone's heroine Not when I became the acting mayor of my hometown after the flood Not when I kept my law practice afloat out of a booth in my grandmother's diner And definitely not when my secret romantasy novels went viral Nobody in Gibson Hollow knows I'm the author behind the pen name And nobody was supposed to kiss me at that book convention least of all my brother's best friend cosplaying the hero he doesn't know I modeled after him Now Ramsey Shaw is back in town Volunteering Smiling at me like I'm not on the verge of shattering Like he remembers the kiss Like he sees the truth I've spent my whole life being strong Quiet In control But for the first time I don't want to be any of those things I just want to be his In a town held together by hope and heart it's the people who show up that make it shine
