Generation Z Victoria Carrington, Jennifer Rowsell, Esther Priyadharshini, Rebecca Westrup, 2015-12-17 This book argues that the mythic figure of the zombie so prevalent and powerful in contemporary culture provides the opportunity to explore certain social models such as childhood and school class and family that so deeply underpin educational policy and practice as to be rendered invisible It brings together authors from a range of disciplines to use contemporary zombie typologies slave undead contagion to examine the responsiveness of everyday practices of schooling such as literacy curriculum and pedagogy to the new contexts in which children and young people develop their identities attitudes to learning and engage with the many publics that make up their everyday worlds

Everybody Hurts Rebecca Williams, 2018-05 Have you ever been a fan of a show that was canceled abruptly or that killed off a beloved character unexpectedly Or perhaps it was rebooted after a long absence and now you're worried it won't be as good as the original Anyone who has ever followed entertainment closely knows firsthand that such transitions can be jarring Indeed for truly loyal fans the loss can feel very real even throwing their own identity into question Examining how fans respond to and cope with transitions endings or resurrections in everything from band breakups R E M to show cancellations Hannibal to closing down popular amusement park rides this collection brings together an eclectic mix of scholars to analyze the various ways fans respond to change Essays explore practices such as fan discussion and creating alternative fan fictions as well as cases where fans abandon their objects of interest completely and move on to new ones Shedding light on how fans react both individually and as a community the contributors also trace the commonalities and differences present in fandoms across a range of media and they pay close attention to the ways fandom operates across paratexts and transmedia forms including films comics and television This fascinating approach promises to make an important contribution to the fields of fan media and cultural studies and should appeal widely to students scholars and anyone else with a genuine interest in understanding why these transitions can have such a deep impact on fans' lives Contributors Stuart Bell Anya Benson Lucy Bennett Paul Booth Joseph Brennan Kristina Busse Melissa A Click Ruth Deller Evelyn Deshane Nichola Dobson Simone Driessen Emily Garside Holly Willson Holladay Bethan Jones Nicolle Lamerichs Kathleen Williams Rebecca Williams
