

Topic: Improving Grade-7 Students' Reading Comprehension Through the Integration of BookTok as an Instructional Material in an English Class

Research Problems:

1. What is the level of reading comprehension of Grade-7 students?
2. What is the level of awareness of Grade-7 students in BookTok?
3. What is the effect of the integration of BookTok as an instructional material to the level of reading comprehension of Grade-7 students?

Method

A. Research Design

The researchers will use an action research design. Action research pertains to a study that aims to provide a solution or an intervention to an existing problem. Moreover, the researchers will use a mixed method, quantitative and qualitative method, to ensure the validity of the data being gathered. The quantitative method includes the use of survey with close-ended questions and the standardized reading comprehension assessment tool to be administered to the respondents at the end of the intervention program. The qualitative method covers the second part of the survey which is open-ended questions.

B. Population

The population of the study consists of Grade-7 students from Section A.

C. Instrument

The researchers will use a survey with close-ended and open-ended questions and a standardized reading comprehension assessment. The survey will be administered to the respondents. It contains questions about the factors that cause students' difficulty in reading comprehension and the strategies they apply to overcome it. BookTok will be integrated in the class discussion as an instructional material. The BookTok videos include visually appealing, engaging, interesting and comprehensible discussion of a literary work. Afterwards, a standardized reading comprehension test will be administered to the students to assess their understanding of the text.
