Design of Effective Instagram Campaigns Carolin Wesche, 2020-04-28 Master's Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 1.3 University of Münster Institute for Value Based Marketing language English abstract The following study investigates the influence of traditional design stimuli applied to a brand post on the consumer's engagement rate on Instagram Consumer engagement thereby represents the effectiveness of a brand post and is defined by the ratio of the number of likes of a brand post and the number of followers of the brand Aiming at analyzing the effectiveness of traditional design stimuli on Instagram the author gathers 450 Instagram brand posts from five different product categories which are subsequently assessed and coded The researcher then conducts a regression analysis as this allows to evaluate the influence of the traditional visual design stimuli on the consumer's engagement rate Whereas novel cognitive demanding stimuli are not found to influence the engagement rate for a brand post certain physically intensive prominent stimuli as well as some affective emotional stimuli have a significant influence The present study further investigates the moderating effect of brand knowledge on the magnitude of the stimuli's influence on consumer engagement rate The results indicate that brand knowledge has a moderating effect on certain stimuli For all other stimuli the influence on the engagement rate does not change for different levels of brand knowledge The results further show that design stimuli applied in brand posts on Instagram differ in their impact on the engagement rate depending on the product category shown in the brand post These findings can be used by managers to exploit the benefits of social media marketing on Instagram

Philosophy of Fame and Celebrity Catherine M. Robb, Alfred Archer, Matthew Dennis, 2024-10-17 In an era of cancel culture digital identities and thriving conversation surrounding parasocial relationships we question today the nature of the celebrity the scope of their power and influence as well as the ethical issues these implicate It is a wonder then that philosophy is a discipline that has as of yet contributed surprisingly little to this debate despite the growing philosophical literature on connected philosophical topics that serve as a starting point for the philosophical inquiry into the nature and value of fame and celebrity For example the literature on the philosophy of admiration achievement skills and talents epistemic authority virtue and moral psychology can all serve to analyse the important questions arise when considering what fame is and the way that it influences the way we live Offering the first introductory overview of the key philosophical issues involved in the nature and value of fame and celebrity this edited collection provides a new perspective and voice to the conversation Divided into four parts its first focuses on conceptual differences between fame and celebrity the experience of being famous how celebrities interact with the public and what motivates people to desire or pursue fame The second part of the volume explores fame and virtue as well as the ways in which ethical issues intertwine with fame concluding with an examination of the nature of fame in relation to contemporary online culture As digital technologies expand cultural commentators remark that we are all becoming celebrities scrutinized by the public gaze whether we like it or not This book therefore answers a pressing need for if celebrity culture continues to expand and consume our social lives the case for a philosophical reflection on the nature and value of this culture becomes even more necessary

Young People and Social Media:

Contemporary Children's Digital Culture Steve Gennaro, Blair Miller, 2021-10-05 Young People and Social Media Contemporary Children's Digital Culture explores the practices relationships consequences benefits and outcomes of children's experiences with on and through social media by bringing together a vast array of different ideas about childhood youth and young people's lives These ideas are drawn from scholars working in a variety of disciplines and rather than just describing the social construction of childhood or an understanding of children's lives this collection seeks to encapsulate not only how young people exist on social media but also how their physical lives are impacted by their presence on social media One of the aims of this volume in exploring youth interaction with social media is to unpack the structuring of digital technologies in terms of how young people access the technology to use it as a means of communication a platform for identification and a tool for participation in their larger social world During longstanding and continued experience in the broad field of youth and digital culture we have come to realize that not only is the subject matter increasing in importance at an immeasurable rate but the amount of textbooks and or edited collections has lagged behind considerably There is a lack of sources that fully encapsulate the canon of texts for the discipline or the rich diversity and complexity of overlapping subject areas that create the fertile ground for studying young people s lives and culture The editors hope that this text will occupy some of that void and act as a catalyst for future interdisciplinary collections Young People and Social Media Contemporary Children s Digital Culture will appeal to undergraduate students studying Child and Youth Studies and given the interdisciplinary nature of the collection scholars researchers and students at all levels working in anthropology psychology sociology communication studies cultural studies media studies education and human rights among others Practitioners in these fields will also find this collection of particular interest

How Far Does Advertising Influence Human

Consumption? Lea Tappert, 2021-07-27 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 1 3 language English abstract The following work will deal with the topic of commercial influence towards the consumer by using different strategies in different types of media The AIDA strategy works consciously Its aim is to make the customer pay attention to the advertisement to make them feel involved and to develop a wish for the product Using repetitions emotions and addressing a community are strategies that work subconsciously Repetitions stay in mind for a longer time and connect the advertisement to a picture of the brand Emotions are created by leading through a story and making the consumer feel good to create a positive emotion about the product too Using the community works with the help of idols and with the opinion of the majority of people to make the consumer follow a certain sense of belonging The strategies are types of communication because the supplier sends a message through an advertisement to the consumer who shows a reaction to the advertisement Digital advertising is the future if advertising Search engines Social Media Channels and video platforms are used to advertise because people spend more time on their mobile phone than on a desktop watching TV or listening to the radio For the suppliers it is easy to collect personal data online Using the personal data they create personalized advertisements to offer more successful advertisements by knowing the consumer s wishes better That means the consumer has to pay attention to be less influenced by all these strategies
