Rustad, 2025-03-10 Social Media Television and Distributional Aesthetics explores this distinct fictional form that merges the genres structures and affordances of television with those of social media and what it entails for contemporary television and media culture and for our experience of new and old media in everyday life Centred around five key case studies Skam Lik meg Dead Girls Detective Agency Content and Eva Stories this book offers insight into how different social media platforms facilitate distinct aesthetics and content transnational aspects of social media television and how different production cultures and industries operate in its production This analysis extrapolated out into broader principles and theoretical arguments that will help scholars working on a wide variety of questions of television and social media digitalization technology convergence media aesthetics production cultures audience cultures and globalization in the future Developing new theoretical perspectives to understand what social media television is and can be and creating new methodological frameworks to analyze television and new media as an aesthetic experience the author proposes distributional aesthetic as the main analytical framework arguing that distribution can be understood as an aesthetic form defined as a situated aesthetic experience in time and space This book will be relevant for scholars instructors students and practitioners working within television studies social media studies media aesthetics and visual and digital culture Crip Up the Kitchen Jules Sherred, 2023-05-09 A cookbook tailored for disabled and neurodivergent individuals Jules Sherred leverages the convenience of modern kitchen tools to challenge the inherent ableism found in conventional cooking guides Food Tank A comprehensive guide and recipe collection that brings the economy and satisfaction of home cooking to disabled and neurodivergent cooks Crippling Crip Up A term used by disabled disability rights advocates and academia to signal taking back power to lessen stigma and to disrupt ableism as to ensure disabled voices are included in all aspects of life When Jules Sherred discovered the Instant Pot multicooker he was thrilled And incensed How had no one told him what a gamechanger this could be for any home cook but in particular for those with disabilities and chronic illness And so the experimenting and the evangelizing began The kitchen is the most ableist room in the house With 50 recipes that make use of three key tools the electric pressure cooker air fryer and bread machine Jules has set out to make the kitchen accessible and enjoyable The book includes pantry prep meal planning shopping guides kitchen organization plans and tips for cooking safely when disabled all taking into account varying physical abilities and energy levels Organized from least to greatest effort or from 1 to all your spoons for spoonies beginning with spice blends and bases Jules presents thorough tested inclusive recipes for making favourites like butter chicken Jules s Effin Good Chili Thai winter squash soup roast dinners matzo balls pho samosas borshch

shortbread lemon pound cake and many more Jules also provides a step by step guide to safe canning and a template for prepping your freezer and pantry for post surgery With rich accompanying photography and food histories complete nutritional information and methods developed specifically for the disabled and neurodivergent cook Crip Up the Kitchen is at once inviting comprehensive and accessible If you've craved the economy and satisfaction of cooking at home but been turned off by the ableist approach of most cookbooks this one's for you

Contemporary Photography and Theory Sally Miller, 2019-11-14 Exploring contemporary theory and practice in photography this textbook moves beyond introductory studies to cover more advanced concepts for the upper level student Building on a foundational understanding of photography it addresses recent theoretical debates and more complex ideas to enable students to acquire the tools and confidence to develop the independent thinking and analytical skills needed for this level of study Contemporary Photography and Theory analyses five key topics identity place the politics of looking psychoanalysis and the event Its conceptual approach encourages students to apply theoretical texts to a range of issues and themes both in their own work and that of others Each topic is broken down into three chapters to address the central concept in detail supported by the following features Troubleshooting footnotes to flag up and clarify common misunderstandings Detailed case studies to show how theoretical concepts can be applied to artists work Further examples and reading suggestions from an international range of photographers and thinkers The chapters are designed to be a suitable length for assigned weekly readings making this the ideal resource for in class discussion as well as the perfect starting place for dissertation research

It's Not Personal Susan Best, 2021-06-17 How does something as potent and evocative as the body become a relatively neutral artistic material From the 1960s much body art and performance conformed to the anti expressive ethos of minimalism and conceptualism whilst still using the compelling human form But how is this strange mismatch of vigour and impersonality able to transform the body into an expressive medium for visual art Focusing on renowned artists such as Lygia Clark Marina Abramovic and Angelica Mesiti Susan Best examines how bodies are configured in late modern and contemporary art She identifies three main ways in which they are used as material and argues that these formulations allow for the exposure of pressing social and psychological issues In skilfully aligning this new typology for body art and performance with critical theory she raises questions pertaining to gender inter subjectivity relation and community that continue to dominate both our artistic and cultural conversation
