They play a role in the development of the disease. The most common cause of death in patients with chronic hepatitis C is liver cancer. The incidence of liver cancer in hepatitis C patients is approximately 10 times higher than in the general population. The risk of developing liver cancer is proportional to the duration of the disease.

• Worship - Worship is the act of giving God the glory and honor that is due to him. It is a response to God's love and grace. It can be expressed through singing, praying, reading the Bible, and other forms of devotion.
