Objects of Worship in South Asian Religions

Knut A. Jacobsen, Mikael Aktor, Kristina Myrvold, 2014-08-27 Objects of worship are an aspect of the material dimension of lived religion in South Asia The omnipresence of these objects and their use is a theme which cuts across the religious traditions in the pluralistic religious culture of the region Divine power becomes manifest in the objects and for the devotees they may represent power regardless of religious identity This book looks at how objects of worship dominate the religious landscape of South Asia and in what ways they are of significance not just from religious perspectives but also for the social life of the region The contributions to the book show how these objects are shaped by traditions of religious aesthetics and have become conceptual devices woven into webs of religious and social meaning They demonstrate how the objects have a social relationship with those who use them sometimes even treated as being alive The book discusses how devotees relate to such objects in a number of ways and even if the objects belong to various traditions they may attract people from different communities and can also be contested in various ways By analysing the specific qualities that make objects eligible for a status and identity as living objects of worship the book contributes to an understanding of the central significance of these objects in the religious and social life of South Asia It will be of interest to students and scholars of Religious Studies and South Asian Religion Culture and Society The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Materiality Vasudha

Narayanan, 2020-04-16 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Materiality provides a thoughtfully organized inclusive and vibrant project of the multiple ways in which religion and materiality intersect The contributions explore the way that religion is shaped by and has shaped the material world embedding beliefs doctrines and texts into social and cultural contexts of production circulation and consumption The Companion not only contains scholarly essays but has an accompanying website to demonstrate the work of performers architects and expressive artists ranging from musicians and dancers to religious practitioners These examples offer specific illustrations of the interplay of religion and materiality in everyday life The project is organized from a comparative perspective highlighting examples and case studies from traditions
