Women and Persona Performance Kim Barbour, 2023-07-25 This book works to unpack and explicate women's personas. Drawing on global gender studies and feminist research the author examines how woman has been constructed socially, culturally and politically throughout different historical periods and feminist movements. Case studies look at how women in different personal and professional settings construct, enact and navigate their personas against a backdrop of shifting discourses on gender relations, continued patriarchal dominance and western neoliberal capitalism. Chapters also delve into how women's personas are constructed online through activism and community building. The author examines the diversity, flexibility and slipperiness of the ways being a woman is experienced and strategically performed. This book will be useful for scholars and students in Gender Studies, Sociology, Psychology and Media Studies. Choice, 2009 Library + Information Update, 2008 Mediaweek, 2009-04 Adweek, 2009-05 Annual Report to the National Assembly for the Financial Year Ended ...
