Treat, 1961 It Seemed Like a Good Idea at the Time Carl Judson Launius, 1995. God, I loved football. Thus begins the saga of a small-town southern boy whose life is altered irreparably by the All-American sport of high school football. Following the injury that leaves him paralyzed from the neck down, Carl Launius learns with a fierce finality that nothing will ever be the same again. In search of a world outside the confines of a wheelchair, Launius turns to Freud, Dostoyevsky, Eliot, college writing, booze, sex, and drugs on his way to becoming a radical degenerate poet. He haphazardly juggles higher education with attendant care, first love, substance abuse, portable ramps, and too full of beer urine bags bobbing up and down physically and emotionally from the Arkansas Ozarks to Illinois to UC Davis and back again to Little Rock. Whether slung like a feedsack over the shoulder of a friend, dumped in the floorboard of a van, astride a railroad track, or dead-broke at the horse races in Hot Springs, Launius presses on without whining, resolved to beat the odds and live a valid life. This book is proof that he has found that life. School Activities, 1945
