Sophie Calle The Address Book:

Did You See Me? Sophie Calle, Christine Macel, Centre Georges Pompidou, 2003 Item revisits many of Calle's early works as well as more recent ones     The Address Book Sophie Calle, 2012 After finding a lost address book the artist sets out to understand its owner by randomly interviewing contacts to learn more about the personality and past of its owner

Everything, All the Time, Everywhere Stuart Jeffries, 2022-09-27 A radical new history of a dangerous idea Post Modernity is the creative destruction that has shattered our present times into fragments It dynamited modernism which had dominated the western world for most of the 20th century Post modernism stood for everything modernism rejected fun exuberance irresponsibility But beneath its glitzy surface post modernism had a dirty secret it was the fig leaf for a rapacious new kind of capitalism It was also the forcing ground of the post truth by means of which western values got turned upside down But where do these ideas come from and how have they impacted on the world In his brilliant history of a dangerous idea Stuart Jeffries tells a narrative that starts in the early 1970s and continue to today He tells this history through a riotous gallery that includes David Bowie the Ipod Frederic Jameson the demolition of Pruitt Igoe Madonna Post Fordism Jeff Koon's Rabbit Deleuze and Guattari the Nixon Shock The Bowery series Judith Butler Las Vegas Margaret Thatcher Grand Master Flash I Love Dick the RAND Corporation the Sex Pistols Princess Diana the Musee D'Orsay Grand Theft Auto Perry Anderson Netflix 9/11 We are today scarcely capable of conceiving politics as a communal activity because we have become habituated to being consumers rather than citizens Politicians treat us as consumers to whom they must deliver Can we do anything else than suffer from buyer's remorse

Women, Gender, and Print Culture in Eighteenth-Century Britain Temma Berg, Sonia Kane, 2013-10-03 This edited collection a tribute to the late noted eighteenth century scholar Betty Rizzo testifies to her influence as a researcher writer teacher and mentor The essays written by a range of established and younger eighteenth century specialists expand on the themes important to Rizzo the importance of the archive the contributions of women writers to the canon of eighteenth century literature and to an emerging print culture the sometimes fraught relations within the eighteenth century family the relationship between life and literature and finally the role of female companionship in women's lives Divided into three sections Living in the Eighteenth Century Novel Living in the Eighteenth Century World and Afterlives the fourteen essays that form the body of the collection treat such topics as epistolary fraternal relations in novels and in families women and travel in Jane Austen's novels the pleasures and challenges of searching through archives to understand the complex entanglements of eighteenth century families the changing reception of Alexander Pope's poetry and intersections among race class gender and sexuality in a famous early nineteenth century Scottish libel case The final essay of the fourteen connects the archetypal eighteenth century figure of the seduced and abandoned woman to Sophie Calle's 2007 Venice Biennale exhibition entitled Take Care of Yourself which the author reads as a direct descendant of the eighteenth century letter novel The book is framed by an introduction that situates the book as part of the ongoing redefinition of the archive of eighteenth century literature and an afterword that gives a personal account of Rizzo's career and her indelible legacy as friend, mentor and professional model. The contributors use a variety of methods in their scholarship but a common strand is archival research and close reading inflected by feminist analysis. The book will appeal to students and scholars of eighteenth century British literature and culture and to those interested in women's writing and women's relationships in the eighteenth century and today and in feminist literary history. The contributors to the volume practice the kind of scholarship Rizzo was known for: painstaking archival research and attention to the nuances of relationships among eighteenth century women and men and in so doing shed new light on a number of familiar and not so familiar eighteenth century texts. Women Artists in the 20th and 21st Century Ilka Becker, 2001 Taschen's inventive layout is effective in presenting the provocative works, words and biographies of the nearly 100 women artists gathered here. Grosenick, a freelance art historian in Germany, has selected women artists working in Germany, the US, South Africa, Japan, Poland, France, Scandinavia and Spain among other countries. The entry for each artist is six pages with much of the space devoted to good quality color photos of her work. c Book News Inc. Parkett, 1997 World Art, 1998 50

Contemporary Artists You Should Know Brad Finger, Christiane Weidemann, 2011 This survey of great contemporary artists is the perfect introduction to the exciting world of art today. Artists working after the Second World War faced a confounding array of challenges as stylistic barriers were broken, technology advanced and issues of sexuality and race came to the forefront. From painters and photographers to sculptors and performance artists, fifty of the most influential contemporary artists are profiled in this colorful and engaging book that traces the various artistic movements and radical changes of the second half of the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. Presented chronologically, each artist is featured in 2 or 4 page spreads that include brilliant reproductions of their most important works, an illuminating biography, key dates in their career and informative background on major developments in the art world. Throughout the volume, a timeline places each artist within the context of contemporary art. As diverse and inspiring as the artists themselves, this book is a voyage of discovery into art's cutting edge. 50 Women Artists You Should Know Christiane Weidemann, Petra Larass, Melanie Klier, 2008 This comprehensive survey of 50 influential women artists from the Renaissance to the Post Modern era details their vast contributions to the art world. Current Biography Yearbook, 2001 Artforum International, 2000 Game Show Laura Steward Heon, 2001 What's in a game? More than 15 artists explore that question in this wonderfully playful volume that documents an exciting new MassMoCA exhibition of the same name. Scheduled to open in June of 2001, Game Show is not surprisingly the first major exhibition to investigate this topic. But games have appeared in works of art and philosophy throughout the 20th century as theories about chance systems and play have found their way into recent critical thought. The exhibition and this book includes works by Christian Jankowski, Kay Rosen, Marcel Duchamp, Perry Hoberman, Uri Tzaig, Maurizio Cattelan, Sophie Calle, Carsten Holler and Gabriel Orozco among others. Their paintings, sculpture, photography and video installations explore every aspect of games from the deceptive simplicity of a soccer match to the forces of chance and luck to the festinating world of wordplay Whimsically and beautifully designed to resemble a child s activity book Game Show features a variety of games designed specifically for this volume by exhibition artists In addition it includes an essay by renowned critic Slavoj Zizek who examines the importance of games to 20th century philosophers the works of which provide the basis for the museum s exhibition This surprising and impressive conjunction of art philosophy and popular culture documents yet another innovative multi media installation from one of the nation s premiere museums Taking Sides ,2005 The Taking Sides series is a debate style reader designed to introduce students to current global controversies and world issues The readings which represent the arguments of leading political scientists social commentators and experts in the field reflect a variety of viewpoints and are presented in pro con format Dushkin Online is a student Web site designed to support Taking Sides titles www.dushkin.com/online Lacan and Contemporary Film Todd McGowan, Sheila Kunkle,2004-02-17 This is a collection of essays that link new developments in Lacanian psychoanalytic theory and recent trends in contemporary cinema Biennale of Sydney 2000 Ewen McDonald,2000 From the very beginning when the first exhibition premiered at the newly opened Opera House in 1973 our aim was to bring to Australia the latest developments in contemporary art from around the world The Biennale of Sydney 2000 continues this outstanding tradition p 6 The Biennale of Sydney ,2000 The publishers weekly ,1992 Aperture 175 Aperture Foundation,2004 Canadian Art ,2009 Aliens & Anorexia Chris Kraus,2000 Its characters include Simone Weil the first radical philosopher of sadness the artist Paul Thek Kraus herself and Africa her virtual S M partner who is shooting a big budget Hollywood movie while Kraus is chronicling the failure of her low budget independent film Gravity and Grace
