Sotheby's Peter Watson,1999-02-01    Rogues and Scholars James Stourton,2025-02-04 A colorful and fast moving account of how postwar London became the global center of the art market a story of Impressionist masterpieces dodgy dealers and ground breaking financial transactions On October 15 1958 Sotheby's of Bond Street staged an event sale of seven Impressionist paintings belonging to Erwin Goldschmidt three Manets two C zannes one Van Gogh and a Renoir Kirk Douglas Anthony Quinn and Somerset Maugham were there as celebrity guests The seven lots went for 781 000 at the time the highest price for a single sale The event established London as the world center of the art market and Sotheby's as an international auction house It began a shift in power from the dealers to the auctioneers and paved the way for Impressionist paintings to dominate the market for the next forty years Sotheby's had pulled off a massive coup by capturing the Impressionist market from Paris and New York and now began its inexorable rise opening offices all over the world A huge expansion of the market followed accompanied by rocketing prices colorful scandals and legal dramas London transformed itself from a fusty place of old master painting sales to a revitalized center of contemporary art crowned by the opening of Tate Modern in 2000 The Tate Modern successfully united new and mostly foreign money in London with the art world offering its patrons a ready made sophisticated social milieu alongside dealers in contemporary art In a vibrant and briskly paced style James Stourton tells the story of the London art market from the immediate postwar period to the turn of the millennium While Sotheby's is the lynchpin of this story Stourton populates his narrative with a glorious rogue's gallery of eccentric scholars clever amateurs brilliant emigrés and stylish grandes with a flair for the deal When Art Isn't Real

Andrew Shortland,Patrick Degryse,2022-04-15 How an initially valueless object becomes worth hundreds of millions And vice versa The art world is a multi billion dollar industry which captures world headlines on a regular basis for both good and bad reasons This book deals with one of the most discussed areas of controversy high profile objects that have experts arguing about their veracity Some may have been looted others may be fakes some may be heavily restored or misattributed Often in these cases analytical science is called on to settle a dispute The authors of this book have decades of experience in this field working on a range of objects dating from prehistory to the twentieth century They present seven of the most famous cases from the Getty Kouros to the Turin Shroud some of which are still contested and examine how a few words from a connoisseur or scientist can make a virtually valueless object worth hundreds of millions And vice versa Art & Auction
