Cooke,David Nicholas Maw,2013 The first large scale study of the music of Herbert Howells prodigiously gifted musician and favourite student of the notoriously hard to please Sir Charles Villiers Stanford Herbert Howells 1892 1983 was a prodigiously gifted musician and the favourite student of the notoriously hard to please Sir Charles Villiers Stanford Throughout his long life he was one of the country s most prominent composers writing extensively in all genres except the symphony and opera Yet today he is known mostly for his church music and there is as yet relatively little serious study of his work This book is the first large scale study of Howells s music affording both detailed consideration of individual works and a broad survey of general characteristics and issues Its coverage is wide ranging addressing all aspects of the composer s prolific output and probing many of the issues that it raises The essays are gathered in five sections Howells the Stylist examines one of the most striking aspect of the composer s music its strongly characterised personal voice Howells the VocalComposer addresses both his well known contribution to church music and his less familiar but also important contribution to the genre of solo song Howells the Instrumental Composer shows that he was no less accomplished for his work in genres without words for which in fact he first made his name Howells the Modern considers the composer s rather overlooked contribution to the development of a modern voice for British music and Howells in Mourning explores the important impact of his son s death on his life and work The composer that emerges from these studies is a complex figure technically fluent but prone to revision and self doubt innovative but also conservative a composer with an improvisational sense of flow who had a firm grasp of musical form an exponent of British musical style who owed as much to continental influence as to his national heritage This volume comprising a collection of outstanding essays by established writers and

emergent scholars opens up the range of Howells's achievement to a wider audience both professional and amateur PHILLIP COOKE is Lecturer in Composition at the University of Aberdeen DAVID MAW is Tutor and Research Fellow in Music at Oriel College Oxford holding Lectureships also at Christ Church The Queen's and Trinity Colleges CONTRIBUTORS Byron Adams Paul Andrews Graham Barber Jonathan Clinch Phillip A Cooke Jeremy Dibble Lewis Foreman Fabian Huss David Maw Diane Nolan Cooke Lionel Pike Paul Spicer Jonathan White Foreword by John Rutter Hexachords in Late-Renaissance Music Lionel Pike, 2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this broad survey includes a large number of musical illustrations and provides an indispensable guide for both students and teachers Hexachords and solmization syllables formed the foundations of musical language during the sixteenth century Yet owing to changes over time in music education and style there no longer exists widespread general knowledge of hexachords Without this awareness it is impossible to appreciate fully the music of the most important composers of the Renaissance such as Palestrina Lasso and Monteverdi This book is the first attempt to fill such a gap in our understanding of hexachords and how they were employed in late Renaissance music Lionel Pike's research covers the period from Willaert to Dowland c 1530 1600 and examines the ways in which the uses of hexachords developed in the hands of different composers The book concludes with an investigation of English examples of hexachords in vocal and instrumental music Stabat Mater, Op. 58 / B. 71 - Vocal Score Antonin Dvorak, 2012-01 Dvorak's Stabat Mater is a work deeply inspired by personal tragedy in the composer's life Originally sketched between February and May of 1876 as a delayed response to the death of his daughter Josefa the work was not completed in definitive form until late 1877 in the wake of the passing of two other children daughter Ruzena and son Otakar The work was finally premiered on 23 December 1880 in Prague with vocalists and chorus from the Czech Provisional Theatre conducted by Adolf Cech The work was first published early the following year by Simrock with the vocal featuring the piano reduction of Josef Zubaty The score reproduced here has been edited by Otakar Sourek and was first issued by the Czech State Publishing concern as part of the complete works of Dvorak As with all PLP scores a percentage of each sale is donated to the amazing online archive of free music scores and recordings IMSLP Petrucci Music Library Palestrina and the German Romantic Imagination James Garratt, 2002-07-18 Focusing on the reception of Palestrina this bold interdisciplinary study explains how and why the works of a sixteenth century composer came to be viewed as a paradigm for modern church music It explores the diverse ways in which later composers responded to his works and style and expounds a provocative model for interpreting compositional historicism In addition to presenting insights into the works of Bruckner Mendelssohn and Liszt the book offers fresh perspectives on the institutional aesthetic and ideological frameworks sustaining the cultivation of choral music in this period This publication provides an overview and analysis of the relation between the Palestrina revival and nineteenth century composition and it demonstrates that the Palestrina revival was just as significant for nineteenth century culture as parallel movements in the other arts such as the Gothic revival The Chord, 1899 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956
