Onomastics between Sacred and Profane Oliviu Felecan,2019-04-30 Religiously God is the creator of everything seen and unseen thus one can ascribe to Him the names of His creation as well at least in their primordial form In the mentality of ancient Semitic peoples naming a place or a person meant determining the role or fate of the named entity as names were considered to be mysteriously connected with the reality they designated Subsequently God gave people the freedom to name persons objects and places However people carried out this act precisely in relation to the divinity either by remaining devoted to the sacred or by growing estranged from it an attitude that generated profane names The sacred profane dichotomy occurs in all the branches of onomastics such as anthroponymy toponymy and ergonymy It is circumscribed to complex and interdisciplinary analysis which does not rely on language sciences exclusively but also on theology ethnology sociology psychology philosophy anthropology geography history and other connected fields as well as culture in general Despite the contributors cultural diversity 29 researchers from 16 countries England Finland Germany Hungary Italy Japan Jordan Kenya Nigeria Poland Romania Russia South Africa Spain U S A and Zimbabwe on four continents and their adherence to different religions and faiths the studies in Onomastics between Sacred and Profane share a common goal that consist of the analysis of names that reveal a person s identity and behavior or the existence configuration and symbolic nature of a place or an object One can state that names are tightly connected to the surrounding reality be it profane or religious in every geographical area and every historical period and this phenomenon can still be observed today The particularity of this book lies in the multicultural and multidisciplinary approach in theory and praxis Book Review Index,2004 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books University of Chicago.
