THE SECRET of HIGH WAGES

By
and
W. FRANCIS LLOYD

This book is written as a result of the authors' visit to the United States of America during the last quarter of 1925.

The visit was inspired by the thought that some possible benefit might be derived from a first-hand acquaintance with the American manufacturing industry during a period of unprecedented prosperity, at a time when Great Britain was in the throes of an industrial depression hitherto unparalleled when one and a quarter millions of people were rendered workless.

Armed with some knowledge of the British and Continental engineering industry, both from the manufacturing and selling points of view, they toured the most important cities of Eastern America, inspected the leading manufacturing plants and other commercial organizations and in addition they had opportunities of discussing industrial policies and methods of manufacture with many leaders in American life.

Explains the secret of our industrial prosperity as seen by two very competent and keen sighted industrial engineers.
