Import

Importing can take a while, especially if you have a lot of books or if your books aren't already listed in our database. If your books don't appear in your shelves right away, don't worry. If there is a problem, or if there were duplicates, we'll tell you about them on this page.

IMPORT FROM A FILE

Check out our sample file and information about supported file formats.

If your import file contains rating or review information, it will overwrite your existing ratings/reviews for imported books that are already on your shelves.

Select a file (.csv, .xls, or .txt) to import:

Import from a Web Page

Import books from any public Web page that includes ISBNs.

manually add books

File Import Tips

- All columns in our sample file are supported, but only ISBN is required.
- CSV files work best. If you have trouble importing an XLS or other spreadsheet file, try saving it as a CSV.
- Some computers might tack an extra ".txt" onto your file name. If your file has a name like "mybooks.csv.txt", please rename it to "mybooks.csv" before uploading.
- You can import the same file multiple times with no ill effects.
- If you have commas in any fields, be sure to enclose those fields in quotes.
- If your import file includes a field for tag or shelf names, separate multiple tag/shelf names with spaces.
- You can only import books that are in our database. This is to maintain the quality of our book catalog. You can manually add any books we can't find.
