Sukanya Banerjee:

Becoming Imperial Citizens Sukanya Banerjee, 2010-06-17 By examining how Indians formulated notions of citizenship across the British empire from the late nineteenth century through the early twentieth Sujatha Banerjee theorizes modes of citizenship decoupled from the rights conferring nation state The Rhetoric of Hindutva Manisha Basu, 2017 Examines the rise of the urban right wing Hindu nationalist ideology in India called Hindutva between 1984 and 2004 Rural

Microfinance and Microenterprise Amitabh Bhatnagar, 2008 Contributed articles on microfinance and small business in India Trans-imperial Feminism in England and India Kellie Holzer, 2024-11-25 Trans imperial Feminism in England and India Catherine Dickens Marie Corelli and Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain demonstrates the trans imperial dimensions of gender based oppression and traces the emergence of trans imperial feminist consciousness between England and India The book identifies a new constellation for literary studies that links the demise of Charles and Catherine Dickens s marriage in the midst of an imperial crisis the 1857 Sepoy Rebellion Marie Corelli s use of elements of the Dickens Scandal in her 1896 novel The Murder of Delicia and Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain s 1922 translation and critical adaptation of Corelli s novel Delicia Hatya Further the book also offers a richly contextualized reading of Hossain s 1924 New Woman novel Padmarag to demonstrate the culmination of trans imperial feminist consciousness Kellie Holzer coins the term trans imperial feminism to denote a dispersed feminist formation of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries characterized by ambivalent agency asymmetry feminist snaps that resound across empire and partisanship forged through storytelling Combining the methods of area studies and critical comparativism Holzer s analysis demonstrates how the trans imperial circulation and citation of women s stories both lived and fictional rescripts women s lives and imagines new feminist constituencies Ultimately Holzer suggests that such trans imperial aesthetic pairings have the potential to revivify Victorian Studies

Migrant Epistemologies in Indian Nonfiction of the Long Twentieth Century Manisha Basu, 2025-11-28

Showcases how a range of migrant experiences are crucial to increasing interdependencies between differentially empowered groups across the world Theorizes the contact between distinct epistemologies during the migrant experience as crucial for a politics of living in relation to others Animates the figure of the nonfiction writer as a public intellectual with an interest in the viability of different worldviews Generates a conversation between the new Global South Studies and an older vein of critical humanism from both India and the West Traces the interest of contemporary nonfiction in the kinds of stories that emerge in the histories from below rubric of Subaltern Studies Connects the figure of the migrant to the important task of rendering durable endangered ways of knowing through an epistemologies from below approach Attending to non fiction texts from India and the Global South Migrant Epistemologies identifies migratory contact zones as sites on which contrary epistemic stances may co exist despite their differences in a symbiotic ecology Given the increasing traffic between differentially empowered groups around the world their distinct cognitive practices must often meet one another head on

Manisha Basu argues that in the best of such circumstances migrants and hosts open themselves to unlearning their own dominant worldviews and animating other ways of knowing Unlike accounts of migration that accentuate the violences involved in the movements of peoples this book foregrounds relatively peaceable but still complex migratory encounters that imagine an epistemologically diverse world resulting in social and environmental justice Political Thought and the Public Sphere in Tanzania Emma Hunter,2015-04-27 Political Thought and the Public Sphere in Tanzania is a study of the interplay of vernacular and global languages of politics in the era of decolonization in Africa Decolonization is often understood as a moment when Western forms of political order were imposed on non Western societies but this book draws attention instead to debates over universal questions about the nature of politics concept of freedom and the meaning of citizenship These debates generated political narratives that were formed in dialogue with both global discourses and local political arguments The United Nations Trusteeship Territory of Tanganyika now mainland Tanzania serves as a compelling example of these processes Starting in 1945 and culminating with the Arusha Declaration of 1967 Emma Hunter explores political argument in Tanzania s public sphere to show how political narratives succeeded when they managed to combine promises of freedom with new forms of belonging at local and national level The Electoral Imagination Kent Puckett,2022-10-13 An intellectual history and aesthetic theory of democratic elections this book offers a critical alternative to the myth of rigging

Disaffected Tanya Agathocleous,2021-04-15 Disaffected examines the effects of antisedition law on the overlapping public spheres of India and Britain under empire After 1857 the British government began censoring the press in India culminating in 1870 with the passage of Section 124a a law that used the term disaffection to target the emotional tenor of writing deemed threatening to imperial rule As a result Tanya Agathocleous shows Indian journalists adopted modes of writing that appeared to mimic properly British styles of prose even as they wrote against empire Agathocleous argues that Section 124a which is still used to quell political dissent in present day India both irrevocably shaped conversations and critiques in the colonial public sphere and continues to influence anticolonialism and postcolonial relationships between the state and the public Disaffected draws out the coercive and emotional subtexts of law literature and cultural relationships demonstrating how the criminalization of political alienation and dissent has shaped literary form and the political imagination Imperial Diasporas and the Politics of Nation-space Sukanya Banerjee,2001 Symposium, Nation-building ,2008

Violent Gods Angana P. Chatterji,2009 This book is an erudite and elegiac exploration of Hindu nationalism in India today It offers a revealing account of Hindu militant mobilizations as an authoritarian movement manifest throughout culture polity and economy religion and law class and caste on gender body land and memory Tracing the continuities between Hindutva and Hindu cultural dominance this book maps the architectures of civic and despotic governmentalities contouring Hindu nationalism in public domestic and everyday life In chronicling concerted action against Christians and Muslims Adivasis and Dalits through spectacles events public executions the riots in Kandhamal of December
