Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van

Klinken,2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa ranging from the War of Independence to the early 21st century the contributions to this volume focus on a variety of historical and chronological circumstances in order to consider what concrete tangible outcomes what artifacts were produced by the interface of war peace and religion the swords and ploughshares of the title This volume thus presents a variety of often multifaceted responses that reflect its interdisciplinary scope Some contributions refer to fine art pieces including statues paintings and murals and others to works of literature theology or public speaking Some of these interfaces were performed on stage or in film while yet others were heard on the radio or read in newspapers or journals Some of the essays gathered here concern individuals working through the meaning of armed conflict in terms of their own personal faith while others examine the impact of such conflicts on a larger scale as with whole faith communities or in the shaping of national or foreign policy The first part Communities looks at interfaces that served to structure a whole community The second Margins examines instances where the relationship between religion and war and peace has occupied a more marginal space within a faith community The final section turns this interface Outward situating it away from American soil or noting how foreign war shaped the spirituality of those returning
