Sunpath The War Orphan Train:

Sunpath Michael Maryk, 2013-10-31 A fact based tale of the horror and brutality of war and the compassion and courage hidden in us all to fight for survival and salvation The Russian Army has invaded its long time foe Finland while pursuing the German troops fleeing from Hitler's self destructive attack on Russia Aimo Kekkonen and the children of his village are put on a train for Nilstad Sweden and safety But not for all Aimo's sister finds a warm loving home with Constable Sten Valheen and his family but Aimo is taken in by the Blixdals the Reverend Bjorn a sadistic egomaniacal collaborator and his desperate loveless and childless wife Karen And the remaining refugee children who are not taken in find themselves trapped in the hell of the town orphanage The question isn't whether Finland will survive to welcome home its lost sons and daughters but whether its sons and daughters will survive to return home In Sunpath The War Orphan Train Aimo his sister cousin and best friend are torn from their idyllic lives in the countryside of Finland and thrust into a maelstrom They are the Finska Krigsbarn Finnish War Children the estimated 70 80 000 children evacuated to neighboring Scandinavian countries mostly to Sweden throughout World War II At war's end over 15 000 evacuees never returned home and of those who did most did so to parentless lives Based on author Michael Maryk's interviews with survivors and local research Sunpath is at its heart an examination of the good and bad in all people and the too soon shattering of childhood innocence a theme sadly familiar in our world today I won't mince words I was simply overwhelmed by Sunpath This is not a good work it is a great one and I expect it to be nothing less than a smashing success Steven Gorelick Director New Jersey Motion Picture Commission With the force but not the bulk of a Russian novel Michael Maryk has interwoven the themes of separation loss endurance irony fate and the darkness and light of the human spirit As a tear streaked reader I closed the book wiser and richer Dr Stuart Brown President Center for Authentic Play Sunpath The War Orphan Train draws a vivid and disturbing image of war and the price that innocent victims pay It is a reminder of the tragedy of war and the humble lessons that somehow humanity never learns Well done Leon Panetta Director the Leon Sylvia Panetta Institute for Public Policy Sunpath is most enlightening It paints a great portrait of the ravages of war on the family and human spirit Bud Yorkin Producer Bud Yorkin Productions Writer creates word artistry There are times in a civilized society that we seem to forget the horrendous imprint that the ravages of war can leave on the hearts and minds of innocent victims especially our children In his new book author Michael Maryk has given us good reasons to remember why we should not let that happen Maryk is a gifted writer and talented word artist He has the unique ability to paint pictures by illustrating his story with words Karen Berg Douglas for The Finnish American Reporter

Death Bite Brent Monahan, Michael Maryk, 2018-10-23 Its bite is seven times more lethal than a rattler twenty five times more deadly than a cobra It will kill a horse in five minutes It is nineteen feet long and moves with deadly speed It is soundless lashing out at its victim without warning It is the taipan the world's deadliest snake AND NOW IT IS LOOSE When will it strike again

Sunpath Michael Maryk, 2010 In the summer of 1943 the country of Finland face

certain annihilation from Russia A plan for neutral Sweden to temporarily adopt Finland's children until the war's end is developed Within three months an operation called Finska Krigsbarn becomes the greatest exodus of children in recorded history We Rode the Orphan Trains Andrea Warren,2001 Listen to child orphans as they share their memories of transition and adventure disappointment and loneliness but ultimately of the joy of belonging to their own new families They were throwaway kids living in the streets or in orphanages and foster homes Then Charles Loring Brace a young minister working with the poor in New York City started the Children's Aid Society and devised a plan to give homeless children a chance to find families to call their own Thus began an extraordinary migration of American children Between 1854 and 1929 an estimated 200 000 children mostly from New York and other cities of the eastern United States ventured forth to other states on a journey of hope Andrea Warren has shared the stories of some of these orphan train riders here including those of Betty who found a fairy tale life in a grand hotel Nettie Evans and her twin Nellie who were rescued from their first abusive placement and taken in by a new kindhearted family who gave them the love they had hoped for brothers Howard and Fred who remained close even though they were adopted into different families and Edith who longed to know the secrets of her past This is powerful nonfiction for classroom and personal reading and for discussion School Library Journal starred review
