Entertained or Else Tina Kendall,2025-09-18 This book considers the complex and often contradictory relations that are forged between boredom and everyday media use in the twenty first century and demonstrates how networked media have developed new technical means of capitalizing on boredom s state of suspension to make it into a source of value creation Focusing on the discursive technological and affective structures that encourage users to be entertaining and to remain entertained the book analyses how boredom has been increasingly instrumentalized as both an individual mood and a wider structure of feeling that drives participation across media networks It identifies the range of cultural techniques for codifying classifying sensing and pre empting boredom as well as those that teach users counter intuitively to embrace boring media as a means of coping with the intensities of always on existence However if boredom is positioned in a digital network culture as a feeling that keeps driving us back to our social media feeds it is important to ask how else it might operate While the technological affordances of computational media have put pressure on our ability to conceive of boredom as a radical challenge to digital capitalism this book attempts to think about the potential that might still be embedded in boredom s capacity to temporarily suspend or to neutralize dominant structures of attention and affect Building on the work of Giorgio Agamben Byung Chul Han Roland Barthes and from historical accounts of boredom and entertainment the book provides a new understanding of boredom in the context of networked media #okBoomer: My TikTok experiment & what marketers should know about the platform! Markus Rach, 2020-03-24. From 0 to over 27 million views in less than 6 weeks. A TikTok experiment by a marketing expert on the fastest-growing social media platform on the planet. TikTok is one of the fastest social media platforms of 2018, 2019, and surely 2020. It is approaching the 1 billion monthly active user mark and setting new records on almost any level. Its rocket-like user growth gets much media attention. But who is behind TikTok? What makes this app so special? What is its addictive formula to keep users for hours on the platform? Markus Rach, a marketer, entrepreneur, researcher, lecturer, husband, and dad, set out to answer these questions. To do so, he engaged in a TikTok experiment. On January 14, 2020, Markus created a TikTok profile with the objective to get a TikTok upload with 1 million views. Although it took him 6 weeks to achieve his goal, his account, the marketing_guy, has now over 30 million views, over 2.8 million likes, multiple TikToks with millions of views, and over 50,000 TikTok fans. Ok for a boomer, right? In this book, Markus shares his experience and learnings from this unique experiment. He looks at TikTok from a marketer's perspective. Answering the very questions marketers have in their mind when thinking about TikTok: Is TikTok relevant for me? Should I join TikTok? How does TikTok work? Isn't it just an app for 13-year-old teens? How can I create a TikTok? Will I get views and how? All of these questions were answered in 7 chapters and to great detail. It also addresses why marketers should not just engage in advertising on the platform but understand the platform first. At the same time, this book documents the experiment's dark side: The emotional side, The race for content and ideas, The emotional twist to wait for views to go up. The happiness is, they do, and the disappointment if they don't. This book also deals with advertising on the platform. One brand got almost 4 billion views on their sponsored hashtag challenge. Others are less successful. Some brands even fail to set up their account Some just throw money at influencers and others miss to understand the platform s culture It reveals what went wrong with marketing And how you can become a kick ass marketer on the platform Understand the platform get your hands dirty get over yourself and don t forget there are teens with 35 million followers and 2 2 billion likes on the platform they don t have an agency nor a department full of degree educated marketers Your time to get on the platform is now Want to be in my TikTok the marketing_guy
