Up and Running with AutoCAD 2017 Elliot J. Gindis, 2016-08-18 Up and Running with AutoCAD 2017 2D and 3D Drawing and Modeling presents Gindis combination of step by step instruction examples and insightful explanations. The emphasis from the beginning is on core concepts and practical application of AutoCAD in engineering, architecture and design. Equally useful in instructor led classroom training, self study or as a professional reference, the book is written with the user in mind by a long time AutoCAD professional and instructor based on what works in the industry and the classroom. Strips away complexities and reduces AutoCAD to easy to understand basic concepts. Teaches only what is essential in operating AutoCAD, thereby immediately building student confidence. Fully covers the essentials of both 2D and 3D in one affordable, easy to read volume. Presents basic commands in a documented step by step guide on what to type in and how AutoCAD responds. Includes several complementary video lectures by the author that accompany both 2D and 3D sections.

Zhongju Liao,Shufeng Xiao ,Siying Long,2024-05-31 Green purchase behavior refers to consumers purchasing green products that are environmentally friendly using fewer resources and causing lower environmental impact and risk As a growing number of people start to recognize the importance of individual responsibility for environmental protection firms are increasingly motivated to develop green products to fit the needs of this green advocacy Despite an emerging number of consumers claiming their preference towards green brands compared to traditional alternatives researchers have found that there is a huge gap between consumers purchase intention and actual behavior which has gained much attention The psychological process of green purchase behavior may be a complicated process influenced by various factors such as consumer values and norms the pros and cons marketed for green products and various other situational factors Scholars are calling for research that explores the psychological decision making process of green purchase behavior from both theoretical and practical perspectives Due to the high pricing of green products the trade off between the price and function of green products may lower consumers satisfaction Thus there is always a gap between green purchase intention and actual purchase behavior What determines consumers actual green purchase behavior Under what conditions will the consumers pay a premium price for green products What prompts consumers to choose green brands over traditional alternatives Will green consumption be a passing trend or a long term consumption habit What influences the frequency of consumers green purchasing Scholars are welcome to share their opinions and findings about green purchase behavior to help explore this research topic We are extremely interested in the determinants of green purchase behavior and the mechanism of facilitating green consumption considering different perspectives Benchmarking in Services Jaideep G. Motwani,Victor E. Sower,2006 Benchmarking is defined as an improvement process in which a company measures its performance against that of best in class companies determines how those companies achieved their performance levels and uses the information to improve its own performance Bemowski 1992 p 20 Under the best of circumstances benchmarking can be difficult time consuming and costly Service benchmarking is made more difficult than benchmarking in manufacturing because it appears that those things which are important to the customer may differ significantly from one service industry to another Sower et al 2001 Because of the question about the universality of the definition of quality in the service industry and the impact on benchmarking activities the editors obtained as broad a cross section of papers for this special issue as possible The industries represented by the nine papers in this issue cover a broad spectrum of service industries from sports to banking from laboratory services to hospitality and tourism   The Times Index ,2000 Indexes the Times and its supplements   Customer-effective Web
