Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries.

Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech, 2025-08-15 Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff, Nina Christensen, Jill Coste, Katrin Dautel, Justyna Deszcz, Tryhubczak, Giuliana Fenech, Naomi Hamer, Irena Barbara Kalla, Anne Klomberg, Sonali Kulkarni, Elizabeth Leach, Leung Ann, Marie Murnaghan, Emily Murphy, Emilie Owens, Nicola Parker, Patrycja Poniatowska, Meg Rosoff, and Farriba Schulz. Child as Citizen Agency and Activism in Children's Literature and Culture addresses children's and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship. Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies, and Anthropocene, ecofeminist and disability studies. Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics, how it is both subjective and collective, how it is cultural and embodied and how like citizenship it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation. In this collection contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children themselves, between children and adults, children and institutions, and children and nation states as well as between children and the nonhuman. This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge.

Ryan, 2025-12-21 I'm Sophie Walker and Reed Bennett is my new boss. He's the epitome of wealth and power. As a billionaire dom he's used to getting everything he wants and he wants me as his personal assistant. I was just a normal young woman until I walked into his office for the interview. From the moment I met him I knew he was different. He exuded a dangerous energy that left me simultaneously frightened and intrigued. But I never expected what happened next. Reed showed me his conference room and as the heavy steel door slammed shut behind me I was plunged into darkness. The dungeon was not what I was expecting with padded walls and ceiling and surveillance cameras that seemed to be watching our every move. It was clear that Reed had spared no expense on this setup. As I explored the dungeon I realized that I had never seen anything like it before. The soundproofing meant that we could scream at the top of our lungs without anyone hearing us. But there was something sinister about the cameras and I couldn't help but wonder why the room was so heavily monitored. Reed remained silent about his intentions for me in the dungeon, leaving me to wonder when the time would be right. But as the sexual tension between us grew I couldn't resist the temptation of exploring this forbidden side of myself with him. I wanted to be the best sub he'd ever had. As I grappled with my desires I couldn't help but wonder if Reed was keeping secrets from me. What was he really planning to do with me in that dungeon? And could I trust him to keep me safe while exploring my darkest desires? Start reading now.
