Transmedial Resonance Robert A. Rushing, 2026-01-20 Introduces a new way of understanding influence reception and adaptation via the work of Italy's most famous modern writer In Transmedial Resonance Robert A. Rushing addresses the remarkable and ongoing responses to the imagination of Italo Calvino Italy's most important modern writer Since his death in 1985 Calvino's writing has served as a constant figure of inspiration for other artists and tellingly that inspiration has been more outside than inside Although Calvino's reputation as a writer is immense his influence has in fact been vastly larger outside of literature including in architecture city planning community organizing design visual arts video games the performing arts and much more That influence is not only transmedial It has also been more outside than inside across national boundaries particularly in the English speaking world Rushing thinks about Calvino's influence through the metaphor of resonance When something resonates he argues it may be inspired to do so but it does so in its own voice singing its own song In fact resonance offers an entirely different way of thinking about influence and artistic reception stressing the energy of the inspiration rather than fidelity to the original In keeping with that underlying sonic metaphor Rushing looks at specifically acoustic responses to Calvino They include Chris Cerrone's Pulitzer nominated opera in headphones based on Invisible Cities Lisa Mezzacappa's Cosmicomics jazz suite and Ashwini Ramaswamy's multimedia dance performance of Invisible Cities which combines traditional South Indian Bharatanatyam urban breaking and African American modern dance These works Rushing shows tell the story of a very different Calvino one who is in Mezzacappa's words nerdy and neurotic playfully perverse and profoundly political Bringing together sound studies with literary studies and cultural reception Transmedial Resonance argues for a radical re imagination of how we think about artistic and cultural influence calling for a completely new understanding of this major figure of modern Italian and world literature Herd Register American Guernsey Cattle Club, 1926 Catalog Sears, Roebuck and Company, 1928 The Coming of Age of Solar and Wind Power Tariq Muneer, Eulalia Jadraque Gago, Saioa Etxebarria Berrizbeitia, 2022-02-03 This book focuses on the current situation of two technologies for electricity production from renewable energy sources wind and solar photovoltaic energy analysing and describing both technologies in detail Four regions of the world with distinct energy markets and conditions are explored Together the USA Europe China and Japan represent one third of the world's population and occupy 25% of the planet therefore offering a representation of a global picture In each of these regions the development of the solar and wind energy is examined and the economic implications are described American Kennel Club Stud Book, 1930 Internationalism in Children's Series K. Sands-O'Connor, M. Frank, 2014-04-08 Internationalism in Children's Series brings together international children's literature scholars who interpret internationalism through various cultural historical and theoretical lenses From imperialism to transnationalism from Tom Swift to Harry Potter this book addresses the unique ability of series to introduce children to the world Catalog Sears, Roebuck and Company, 1923 Holstein-Friesian
