True Sisters

Sandra Dallas

The Martin Company was one of the last Mormon groups to leave Iowa City for Utah in 1856. The emigrants were outfitted with two-wheeled handcarts and their 1,300-mile trek on foot was fraught with peril.

In Sandra Dallas' True Sisters, a riveting novel based on this real-life event, we meet pregnant Ella, worried that her sister is shamed by the presence in their group of the man who left her at the altar to marry another. Then there's Anne, who joined the trek only because her husband was so insistent. As for feisty Jessie, she worries that her friend Louisa is too weak to withstand the trip...or her husband, a hardened missionary. Across the miles each woman will learn of the strength born of suffering, and the power of friendship.
