Try To Remember:

Try to Remember Judith Freeland, 2005-11 Try to Remember is a six year journey through the memories and musings of a man diagnosed with Alzheimer's. It opens with a moment of Greg's forgetfulness an early symptom of the disease that would exile him to a nursing home for the rest of his life. Mostly it is stories told to anyone who would listen of his boyhood in the early 20th century in a small village in Minnesota spending summers from the age of ten with harvest crews throughout the grain belt states his early adulthood during the Great Depression and the less trumpeted dust bowl years when jobs were scarce and ill paid. He remembers his joys during courtship marriage and fatherhood his triumphs as an entrepreneur involved on the fringes of Canadian politics his love of horses. His mind returns again and again to summers at the family lake cottage the night a bear raided the icebox the day he feared a daughter had drowned the night the Northern Lights spectacularly outshone Fourth of July fireworks. The memories are funny and sad exciting and mundane terrifying and comforting. As scattered as his memories is his fleeting awareness that his mind was failing him. Try to Remember Jack Orbach, 2000 This riveting family saga about the son of a Polish Jewish immigrant to Canada is told in 17 short stories that blend tragedy and humor. The overarching figure is Jacob who loses his mother at three and is raised by his stepmother. His father from an orthodox Jewish home in Lodz escapes from the Polish army under bizarre circumstances and searches for a place to settle. After a stint in Germany and Palestine as a chutzpah pioneer he tries to settle in the US but is hounded as an illegal immigrant and finally finds a home in Montreal where Jacob is born and bred. After high school Jacob tries working in his father's printing shop but finds business not appealing. His parents give him violin lessons and as a teenager he studies music seriously. Near the end of World War II Jacob begins his academic career receiving his BA at McGill and his PhD at Princeton. His mentors are two prominent neuropsychologists and his professional career is rich with anecdotes. After a sexual apprenticeship he marries Raquel and has four children. The tragic deaths of Raquel first and then of his eldest daughter shatter the family. Jacob divorces twice before finding happiness with his present wife. Try to Remember ...
