Goodreads Choice This Week Setup:

Curating a Literacy Life William Kist,2022 Curating a Literacy Life spotlights the idea of curation as a process for inspiring student centered learning with digital media Young people need to learn to become purposeful collectors and thus curators of their own learning In this book Kist shows educators how to empower students as they make sense of all the books videos websites and social media they access Packed with ideas and activities developed over time in a high school setting the author presents a model for learning to learn a way of processing making meaning and repurposing all the texts around us Kist demonstrates how curating can happen no matter where the teaching and learning are taking place whether virtually or face to face in school or out of school Using Smart phones a Netflix account and access to a variety of YA canonical and media texts this resource provides a foundation for becoming lifelong scholars and artists Curating a Literacy Life is for both teachers and parents who are interested in helping young people harness manage and learn from the multiple messages and texts they encounter every day Book Features A powerful model to help teens make sense of and even repurpose the texts they encounter daily Ideas for making use of digital media in ways that are meaningful to today's students Strategies for bridging the divide between in school and out of school literacies Activities developed during the author's years as an instructional coach at Cleveland's Glenville High School

Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books

Alison Baverstock, Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, 2020-01-16 Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books is a comprehensive resource that builds bridges between the traditional focus and methodologies of literary studies and the actualities of modern and contemporary literature including the realities of professional writing the conventions and practicalities of the publishing world and its connections between literary publishing and other media Focusing on the relationship between modern literature and the publishing industry the volume enables students and academics to extend the text based framework of modules on contemporary writing into detailed expositions of the culture and industry which bring these texts into existence it brings economic considerations into line alongside creative issues and examines how employing marketing strategies are utilized to promote and sell books Sections cover The standard university course specifications of contemporary writing offering an extensive picture of the social economic and cultural contexts of these literary genres The impact and status of non literary writing and how this compares with certain literary genres as an index to contemporary culture and a reflection of the state of the publishing industry The practicalities and conventions of the publishing industry Contextual aspects of literary culture and the book industry visiting the broader spheres of publishing promotion bookselling and literary culture Carefully linked chapters allow readers to tie key elements of the publishing industry to the particular demands and features of contemporary literary genres and writing offering a detailed guide to the ways in which the three core areas of culture economics and pragmatics intersect in the world of publishing Further to being a valuable resource for those studying English or Creative Writing the volume is a key text for degrees in which Publishing is a component and is relevant to those aspects of Media Studies that look at interactions between the media and literature publishing Good Housekeeping, 2009 Library Programs and Services for New Adults Kyla Hunt, 2017-10-06 Addressing the needs of new adults those ages 18-29 in the library is an important challenge. This book explains the needs and wants of new adults in the public library setting and identifies their preferences in physical space, programming, and technology. According to the Pew Research Center's 2015 Libraries at the Crossroads Report, 52 percent of people between the ages of 16 and 29 visited a bookmobile or library within the past year. Yet many public libraries' programming and outreach skip over this demographic, jumping from teen services to older adults. Library Programs and Services for New Adults provides a road map for including new adults into the family of the small public library and offers a variety of resources and programming ideas that librarians can use immediately. Author Kyla Hunt, a library technology and trends specialist, explains why the needs of new adults are typically overlooked at public libraries, defines who new adults are, and explains why serving their needs is key to the success of today's public libraries. Readers will come away with an in-depth understanding of the mindset and needs of patrons who are 18 to 29 years old and be able to cater to their preferences as they pertain to physical space, programming, technology, and marketing.

This Close to Okay Leesa Cross-Smith, 2024-06-13 This Close to Okay hits the ground running. Cross-Smith writes tenderly about the trial and error of intimacy and draws you in with enormous warmth and control. Raven Leilani, author of LUSTER. On a rainy October night, therapist Tallie Clark is on her way home from work when she spots a man standing at the edge of a bridge. Without a second thought, Tallie pulls over and convinces him to join her for a cup of coffee. Eventually, he agrees to come back to her house, where he finally shares his name, Emmett. Over the course of the emotionally charged weekend that follows, Tallie makes it her mission to provide a safe space for Emmett. But he isn't the only one who needs healing, and they both are harbouring secrets. As they inch closer to the truth of what brought Emmett to the bridge and the hard truths Tallie has been grappling with since her marriage ended, could their connection lead to love? This Close to Okay is an uplifting story about chance encounters and hope found in the most unlikely moments from a consummate author of emotionally wrought romance. Longlisted for the 2022 Mark Twain American Voice in Literature Award. Longlisted for the Goodreads Choice Awards Book of the Month December Pick. Good Housekeeping Book Club February Pick. Marie Claire Book Club March Pick.
