hinder the ability of U S colleges and universities to be creative and entrepreneurial amid calls to improve affordability access and equity for students Through pithy personal stories of divisive town hall meetings multiyear college governance battles and attempts at curricular reform Rosenberg illustrates internal and external dynamics that impede institutional evolution Pressures such as declining enrollment escalating costs and an oversupply of PhDs in academia have long signaled a grave need for reform within a profession that as Rosenberg ruefully acknowledges lacks organizational flexibility depends greatly on reputation and ranking and retains traditions from the academic calendar to grading systems that have remained essentially the same for decades Rosenberg looks outside the U S system to find possible antidotes in innovative higher education models such as student centered and experiential learning approaches This thought provoking work offers ample evidence for presidents chancellors deans provosts and faculty to consider as they plan their missions to achieve institutional transformation
