[illegible]

Mindful Morning Routine

Winged Morning Glories

My Mourning Routine

When my mother died, I was 17. Mourning rituals, usually consisting of wearing black, didn't do anything for me, though. I was afraid that people who dressed in black, that they only wanted to feel sad, when people are sad, they should feel sad.

I started with gratitude. Gratitude is a practice that helps the heart see the goodness and the pleasure in the day, even a small thing like my grandmother's favorite tea. It's about pleasure in your eating and your drinking.

The routine also includes writing a log of coffee cups drunk and a good book, coffee rituals, and a meditation. They help keep you grounded and help you see the goodness of the day, allowing you to see the goodness of the day.

These small, consistent steps create a foundation of mourning and comfort in my life.
