The Roundtable Pulpit Where Leadership And Preaching Meet:

The Roundtable Pulpit John S. McClure, 1995 Collaboration is one of the best ways to make a difference when leading a congregation. Now John S. McClure shows how collaborative preaching is the best way to inspire and guide a congregation. Most preachers use a sovereign leader-centered style or an inductive consultative style of preaching. John McClure shows why these styles are sometimes manipulative and ineffective; they do not take seriously the spiritual wisdom and tested experience that are present in God's people. In collaborative preaching a revolving expanding roundtable is established where a pastor and as many as ten church members meet to discuss the concerns and ministries of the congregation. The pastor speaks prophetically each Sunday on behalf of this roundtable and honors the Holy Spirit who is at work among the whole people.

Preaching in the Purple Zone Leah D. Schade, 2019-04-23 Preaching in the Purple Zone is a resource for helping the church understand the challenges facing parish pastors while encouraging and equipping preachers to address the vital justice issues of our time. This book provides practical instruction for navigating the hazards of prophetic preaching with tested strategies and prudent tactics grounded in biblical and theological foundations. Key to this endeavor is using a method of civil discourse called deliberative dialogue for finding common values among politically diverse parishioners. Unique to this book is instruction on using the sermon dialogue sermon process developed by the author that expands the pastor's level of engagement on justice issues with parishioners beyond the single sermon. This book equips clergy to help their congregations respectfully engage in deliberation about hot topics find the values that bind them together and respond faithfully to God's Word.

Crossover Preaching Jared E. Alcántara, 2015-10-08 In our increasingly pluralistic and multicultural society there is a need for preaching that is capable of crossing cultural boundaries and engaging multiple contexts. Jared Alcántara's exciting new work proposes an intercultural and improvisational account of preaching in conversation with the legacy of Gardner C. Taylor.

Introduction to Preaching Leah D. Schade, Jerry L. Sumney, Emily Askew, 2023-02-03 Coauthored by a homiletician, a theologian, and a biblical scholar this book is a preaching primer that provides tools for crafting effective, engaging, and inspiring sermons. Using a unique workbook style format, Introduction to Preaching equips seminarians and preachers to use appropriate theological claims informed by solid biblical interpretation while providing several sample sermons from the authors. Readers will learn how to use a three part schema: the Central Question, the Central Claim, and the Central Purpose to provide the drive, direction, and destination for the sermon. Offering guidelines for using appropriate sermon forms, imagery, metaphors, and creativity together with advice on how to deliver contextually relevant sermons using our bodies, presence, and voice make this a staple for both new and experienced preachers. Introduction to Preaching includes a chapter on exploring the space of preaching including onsite and online sermons. In addition it features charts and worksheets to help organize the sermon writing process as well as exercises for the preacher's voice and body and tips for advice for guest preachers and supply preachers. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Prepare a Road! Kim L. Beckmann, 2002-05-25 Lutheran pastor Kim Beckmann presents a challenging new method for engaging scripture in the preparation of sermons for the parish Utilizing the preacher's own sense of vocation the community's voice and the collective vision for the Gospel in the marketplace Beckmann teaches us how to read the scriptures with fresh eyes to see the coming Kingdom of God in encounters and events as ordinary as going on site with a local bulldozer operator to prepare a road in the wilderness A fresh and exciting look at preaching community and the Word of God as it is lived every day by the People of God In my sermon writing cell surrounded by a feast of commentary I find myself casting a wandering and wondering eye out the window toward the village square where this gospel my message will finally have to live What if the sermon could be conceived in the very soil in which it has to take root While many of us consider the Bible to be the favorite storybook into which we want to climb we nevertheless often find its language inaccessible its setting unfamiliar and the apprehension of its real meanings for daily life frustrating to pursue In our frankly market driven society where such a difficult story must compete with many other stories that are both easier to access and seemingly easier to inhabit the gospel story calls forth faithful and inspired interpreters and equally faithful and inspired tellers
