Real-World Data and

Real-World Evidence in Lung Cancer Valerio Gristina ,Chukwuka Eze,2024-06-14 Lung cancer is still one of the most common malignancies with a high global mortality rate with over 2 million cases confirmed by the World Health Organization in 2018 Although there has been progress in diagnosing and treating lung cancer patients still have poor prognosis with a 5 year survival rate typically from 4-17% which is dependent on the stage of the cancer and regional differences The majority of lung cancer patients are at the advanced stages of the disease at the time of their diagnosis and therefore have less chances of early treatment that could have improved their survival rate Therefore early detection of lung cancer remains imperative to improve the prognosis

Oncology of CNS Tumors Jörg-Christian Tonn,David A. Reardon,James T.

Rutka,Manfred Westphal,2019-05-31 This book is an easy to use reference that provides ready guidance on the diagnosis and treatment of the full range of tumors of the central nervous system in adults and children The new edition has been completely revised to reflect the continually evolving landscape of neuro oncology and provide readers with a thorough update that will inform their clinical practice Since the previous edition molecular neuropathology has progressed considerably leading to a new understanding of specific clinical entities with corresponding changes in treatment concepts Moreover tumor biology has become better integrated with clinical neuro oncology in truly translational efforts These advances receive detailed attention In addition the structure of the book has been adapted to align with the revised 2016 version of the WHO Brain Tumor Classification Once again the contributors have been carefully selected as leading experts in the field Oncology of CNS Tumors is already established as a widely used reference and this new edition will provide optimal value for highly specialized comprehensive neuro oncology centers as well as practicing clinicians and researchers
