John Grisham, 2018-11-20 Books are leather bound signed and numbered with printed endpapers gold stamping a slipcase and a ribbon marker. John Grisham returns to Clanton Mississippi to tell the story of an unthinkable murder the bizarre trial that follows it and its profound and lasting effect on the people of Ford County. Pete Banning was Clanton's favorite son a returning war hero the patriarch of a prominent family a farmer father neighbor and a faithful member of the Methodist church. Then one cool October morning in 1946 he rose early drove into town walked into the Church and calmly shot and killed the Reverend Dexter Bell. As if the murder wasn't shocking enough it was even more baffling that Pete's only statement about it to the sheriff to his defense attorney to the judge to his family and friends and to the people of Clanton was I have nothing to say. And so the murder of the esteemed Reverend Bell became the most mysterious and unforgettable crime Ford County had ever known.
