Mindful Morning Routine

Winged Morning Glories

My Mourning Routine

Living with chronic illness and neurodegenerative disease, maintaining a mourning routine feels as though the only means to my peace and calm is to do it. That's why, besides my usual self-care, I do a daily routine.

I start with gratitude journaling to practice that, keep the focus on the positives and not on what's wrong. For that day, I write a letter to my self, my symptoms, support, and the good moments in my morning and throughout the day.

The routine also always includes a cup of coffee with honey and a good book, which can be an emotional time, but I always include something that brings me joy, like a song, a story, or a poem. I always make sure to include something that is new to me.

These daily mourning steps make a difference in my life and overall in my life.
