Divine Callings Richard N. Pitt,2012-02 One of the unique aspects of the religious profession is the high percentage of those who claim to be called by God to do their work This call is particularly important within African American Christian traditions Divine Callings offers a rare sociological examination of this markedly understudied phenomenon within black ministry Richard N Pitt draws on over 100 in depth interviews with Black Pentecostal ministers in the Church of God in Christ both those ordained and licensed and those aspiring to examine how these men and women experience and pursue the call Viewing divine calling as much as a social process as it is a spiritual one Pitt delves into the personal stories of these individuals to explore their work as active agents in the process of fulfilling their calling In some cases those called cannot find pastoral work due to gender discrimination lack of clergy positions and educational deficiencies Pitt looks specifically at how those who have not obtained clergy positions understand their call exploring the influences of psychological experience the congregational acceptance of their call and their response to the training process He emphasizes how those called reconceptualize clericalism in terms of who can be called how that call has to be certified and what those called are meant to do offering insight into how social actors adjust to structural constraints

Hagin,2001     The Power of the Lord's Supper Beatrice N. Olasupo,2016-02-15 Revelational insight always has been essential for clear understanding of having victorious spiritual life We can only access what we know about Even though some of us have been Christians believers followers preachers teachers and so forth But have never personally or privately celebrated or partake in the Lord's Supper with their immediate family Majority know about the Holy Communion but never practically regularly celebrate it This is due to lack of knowledge in this area Therefore we never experience the numerous incredible and tremendous benefits Jesus said Most assuredly I say to you unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood you have no life in you Whosoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life and I will raise him up in the last day For My flesh is food indeed and My blood is drink indeed He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me and I in him John 6 53 56 We cannot access the benefits of the Lord's Supper without an insight into the power of the Holy Communion Most believers have little or limited understanding of the power at the Lord's table They think of the Holy Communion as a religious act or rite Christianity is not about religion it's about relationship with God Throughout the scripture God's desire for fellowship and communion with man is revealed In my findings I realized that most or a lot of believers had not once partake in the Lord's Supper In many instances they have never had Holy Communion since they came to know Christ For instance when I ask them questions like when last did you take Holy Communion Do you take Holy Communion Have you had Holy Communion recently The response or answers to these questions is very surprising and shocking it is perturbing That is some give answers like not in many years not recently My church or new church don't do it in my church we don't or since I join this new church I have not taken Holy Communion When I further ask or say I mean by yourself or on your own privately at home I get the following response is it possible to take Holy Communion on my own And not only in the church sometimes I say to some persons to take Holy Communion for that nagging illness ailment and so on and so forth The usual response is what has taken Holy Communion got to do with my sickness Am not dying Most Christians are of the assumption that Holy Communion can only be taken privately on a dying bed as their last rite or wish No wonder Hosea 4 6 say My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge This Book is aimed at us demonstrating our faith in God by obedience the place for miracles and Accessing divine healing through Jesus Christ our Lord and saviour We are to partake of the Lord's Supper regularly individually privately collectively and worthily The Lord's Supper eaten in faith is a meal that will turn the tide The Lord's Supper is the Overcomers meal The Lord's Supper is the believer's meal of life Jesus said As the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me John 6:57 When or if we do not partake of the Lord's Supper we cannot call ourselves His disciples or followers You have no life in you Eternal life can only be found in the flesh and blood of Jesus As you partake of the Lord's Supper practically regularly and worthily you receive the master key for life divine nature health victory deliverance open doors and irrevocable blessings The Christian Ritual Meal as a Symbol of Love and Unity Augustine Owusu-Sekyere, 2005 In this free will offering or sacrifice of himself Christ calls Christians to communion with God and fellow believers It is communion in love and unity This love and unity is what Christ mandates the Christian community to uphold as the new commandment Therefore the Christian ritual meal as a sacrifice and meal of love and unity should continually foster this new commandment of Christ in the community of believers from Abstract p iv
