The Mysterious Death Of Jane Stanford:

The Mysterious Death of Jane Stanford Robert W. P. Cutler, 2022 Jane Stanford the co-founder of Stanford University died in Honolulu in 1905 shortly after surviving strychnine poisoning in San Francisco. The inquest testimony of the physicians who attended her death in Hawaii led to a coroner's jury verdict of murder by strychnine poisoning. Stanford University President David Starr Jordan promptly issued a press release claiming that Mrs. Stanford had died of heart disease, a claim that he supported by challenging the skills and judgment of the Honolulu physicians and toxicologist. Jordan's diagnosis was largely accepted and promulgated in many subsequent historical accounts. In this book, the author reviews the medical reports in detail to refute Dr. Jordan's claim and to show that Mrs. Stanford indeed died of strychnine poisoning. His research reveals that the professionals who were denounced by Dr. Jordan enjoyed honorable and distinguished careers. He concludes that Dr. Jordan went to great lengths over a period of nearly two decades to cover up the real circumstances of Mrs. Stanford's death.

Who Murdered Jane Stanford Dorothea N. Buckingham, 2022-11-25 Honolulu, Hawaii February 1905 Mrs. Jane Lathrop Stanford, the Mother of Stanford University, was murdered in her hotel room by a lethal dose of strychnine. Or was she? Was the claim of death by natural causes by the university president Mrs. Stanford's biggest adversary a cover up? Did the matron's longtime secretary murder her mistress to steal her jewels? Did her brother mastermind the crime from across the Pacific Ocean to collect on his inheritance? Poisoned Palms weaves the startling true facts of this famous mystery into a gripping tale of fiction with turn of the century Hawaii as its backdrop. Bringing to life the people who knew the wealthy and influential Mrs. Stanford best, it will keep you guessing till the end.

Who Killed Jane Stanford? Richard White, 2022-05-17. Named One of the Best Nonfiction Books of 2022 by the Los Angeles Times. A premier historian penetrates the fog of corruption and cover up still surrounding the murder of a Stanford University founder to establish who did it, how and why. In 1885 Jane and Leland Stanford cofounded a university to honor their recently deceased young son. After her husband's death in 1893, Jane Stanford, a devoted spiritualist who expected the university to inculcate her values, steered Stanford into eccentricity and public controversy for more than a decade. In 1905 she was murdered in Hawaii, a victim according to the Honolulu coroner's jury of strychnine poisoning. With her vast fortune the university's lifeline, the Stanford president and his allies quickly sought to foreclose challenges to her bequests by constructing a story of death by natural causes. The cover up gained traction in the murky labyrinths of power, wealth and corruption of Gilded Age San Francisco. The murderer walked. Deftly sifting the scattered evidence and conflicting stories of suspects and witnesses, Richard White gives us the first full account of Jane Stanford's murder and its cover up. Against a backdrop of the city's machine politics, rogue policing, tong wars and heated newspaper rivalries, White's search for the murderer draws us into Jane Stanford's imperious household and the academic enmities of the university. Although Stanford officials claimed that no one could have wanted to murder Jane, we meet several people who had the motives and the opportunity to do so. One of these we discover also had the means.
