The Mission Of Preaching Equipping The Community For Faithful Witness:

The Mission of Preaching Patrick W. T. Johnson, 2015-02-25 We hear plenty of discussion about missional theology missional leadership and missional church planting But what about missional preaching In this groundbreaking work Patrick W T Johnson develops a new missional homiletic to aid preachers in their witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in this post Christendom world     Preaching Gospel Charles L. Campbell, Clayton J. Schmit, Mary Hinkle Shore, Jennifer Copeland, 2016-08-30 Teaching preaching like preaching itself is a noble endeavor After nearly four decades of teaching Richard Lischer has sent legions of preachers across the world to preach gospel This volume pays tribute to his faith filled life of preaching and teaching The contributors some of whom were taught by Lischer have received many laurels themselves so readers will find in these pages wisdom for preaching from many quarters Some authors include sermons with helpful commentary about the preaching exercise some offer essays to illuminate the task of sermon writing all acknowledge the influence of Richard Lischer on their preaching and teaching endeavors     The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson, 2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermon form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future     The Present Preacher Liz Shercliff, Matt Allen, 2021-09-30 Good preaching depends on being attentive to God to the Bible to the congregation to the context to what influences and shapes the preacher This practical confidence building guide is for all who want to develop their preaching by homing in on that which points to God in the now Encouraging preachers in the ways that will make authentic connections with others it demonstrates that preaching in today s culture requires preachers to show up and be present in person rather than speak in role or act as religious spokespersons who take no responsibility for their message Based on the authors own training of ordinands it offers Insights on how to develop the habit of noticing God in the world Strategies for opening up and finding fresh meaning in familiar Bible texts Ways of understanding what influences your congregation and your own theology Sample sermons that embody these principles

The Peoples' Sermon Shauna K. Hannan, 2021-11-09 The proclamation of the gospel is the responsibility of the baptized rather than the privilege of the ordained Preaching is not a solo endeavor It is a communal practice a ministry of the whole congregation that is most faithful when the process is shared In The Peoples Sermon Shauna K Hannan argues that it is no longer faithful for a preacher to craft a sermon in isolation step into the pulpit literally or metaphorically on Sunday morning offer a one sided monologue and on Monday start all over alone with the process of researching and writing in preparation for the following Sunday Hannan s goal is to create vital worshipping communities where all know and live out their roles in the preaching ministry of the congregation where both clergy and laity are empowered and equipped in their roles before during and after the sermon She encourages readers to reflect on what preaching is and why the church engages in this practice and to explore various roles in the preaching ministry of the congregation She guides readers and their communities through a process that equips hearers to fulfill their active roles in the preaching ministry of the congregation The Peoples Sermon dares to suggest that preaching is most faithful when it is collaborative Pastors do not own the pulpit they steward it

Preaching and the Mission of God David R. Fields, 2023-03-16 In an age divided and skeptical when the true Christian story is often unknown or deeply misunderstood how do we even begin to share the news of Jesus And how might preaching in a local church both equip God s people for their missional task and speak in a way that a weary world can hear and even rejoice In The answer begins with seeing the Bible as a document developed in a missionary context for a missionary purpose This book starts there It begins by examining the Bible as a document of mission that needs to be interpreted through a missional lens It then moves to offer a mission shaped vision for preaching and the needed tools for contextualizing the gospel in our post Christendom setting You ll find short accessible chapters with personal reflection questions as well as three group discussion sections ideal for either a classroom setting a preaching team in a local church or a preacher s guild
