The Modernist Traveler French Detours 1900 1930:

The Modernist Traveler Kimberley J. Healey, 2003-01-01 The Modernist Traveler considers figures whose writing about travel rebelled against a literary tradition of exoticism adventure stories and novelistic travelogues Instead these writers initiated a modernist strain in travel writing and a shift in the literary establishment and the culture at large Kimberley J Healey focuses on those French writers and thinkers who traveled in order to experience a displacement of both the inner self and the physical body while writing against the prevalent tradition of travel literature The modern self modern time colonial spaces and the physical body are Healey s concerns as she reads works by Victor Segalen Paul Morand Blaise Cendrars Henri Michaux Saint John Perse Guillaume Apollinaire Paul Nizan Albert Londres Andre Malraux Val ry Larbaud and Isabelle Eberhardt This book shows how in the field of French literature these texts about travel best capture the modernist experience of being alone in a world of new technologies cultural diversity and anxiety about the self

New Approaches to Twentieth-century Travel Literature in French Charles Forsdick, Feroza Basu, Siobhán Shilton, 2006 From the postcolonial perspective of the early twenty first century the importance of travel literature for considerations of national and international cultures and identities has become increasingly apparent Travel literature in French has however received little critical scrutiny This book contributes to contemporary reassessments of the form in a number of disciplines focusing specifically on the discourses and contexts of travel in twentieth century texts written in French Its scope is interdisciplinary involving theoretical and generic considerations as well as a historical overview of colonial and postcolonial texts The book provides essential reading for all students of travel literature in French and of travel literature in general

Alternative Modernities in French Travel Writing Gillian Jein, 2016-06-19 Ever since human beings first travelled cities have constituted important material and literary destinations While the city has formed a key theme for scholars of literary fiction travellers modes of writing the city have been somewhat neglected by travel studies However travel writing with its attention to difference provides a rich source for the study of representational strategies and tactics in the modern city Tracing spatial practices of French travel writers in London and New York from 1851 to the 1980s this book contributes to a body of work that analyses travel and travel writing beyond the Anglophone context and engages a variety of travel writing in questions surrounding French modalities for negotiating and establishing a nexus of meanings for life in the modern city One of the central tenets of the book is that in the way its spaces are planned encountered and represented the city is operational in the formulation of identities and ideologies and the book s guiding question is how travel and travel writing allow for the exploration of urban modernity from a perspective of exchange Bringing together the strands of theory context and poetic analysis this book examines travel writing as a spatial practice of the modern city engaging urban space in questions of nationality power and legibility and opening avenues for the exploration of urban modernity from a position of alterity where alternative imaginative geographies of the city might emerge
