Dear [Mr./Ms./Mx.] [Hiring Manager's Last Name],

The first paragraph should contain a self-introduction. Write who you are, where your expertise lies, where you found the job posting (or who referred you), and why you want to apply.

The second paragraph should respond directly to the job description. Describe how your relevant experiences, skills, and abilities help you meet the company's needs. To make that easier, you can (and should) literally include words and phrases from the job description here.

- You can also include a bulleted list of your accomplishments
- Make sure you quantify (add numbers to) these bullet points
- A cover letter with numbers is 100% better than one without

To go the extra mile, research the company and try to find out what they are doing — and why — given the current state of their industry. Explain how you can fit into that framework, and help push the company forward and achieve any goals you suspect they have.

The final paragraph is the "call to action" portion of your cover letter. Inform the hiring manager that you'd love to get interviewed. Give them your contact information. Tell them you'll reach out again next week if you don't hear back. Thank them for their time.

Sincerely,

Thomas Beasley

ABOUT THE BOOK If a resume is a window into your past work experience a cover letter is the tool you use to install it Cover letters were once just an after thought something most people used to simply regurgitate their resumes In fact it wasn't until the last decade that cover letters gained wide acceptance and importance Today not only is the cover letter just as important as a resume it can be the deciding factor in whether a hiring manager looks at your resume or throws it in the trash But how do you write the kind of amazing cover letter that will get you in the door How can you create a narrative of your professional experience that makes the HR person sit up and take notice The key is knowing how to present yourself It does not matter if you've spent 30 years in the work force or are just entering it the fact remains that you need to learn to how convince someone else to interview you MEET THE AUTHOR The Hyperink Team works hard to bring you high quality engaging fun content If ever you have any questions about our products or suggestions for how we can make them better please don't hesitate to contact us Happy reading EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You've probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you'd probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don't bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It's always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don't know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it's common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they've learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won't make an impression on the reader Don't just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren't meant as a tool to repeat everything that's in your resume It's a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you're applying for Include any training classes awards and recognition you've received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition Buy a copy to keep reading Stand Out Cover Letters Mark Baker,2016-07-20 BOOK DESCRIPTION WANT TO KNOW HOW TO GET A JOB IN THE OVERCROWDED JOB MARKET Don't be like everybody else and do what everybody else is doing Learn how to write cover letters that stand out Once you know how you'll be able to write cover letters for jobs you really want that showcase you as a standout candidate to get you the job interview This book will show you how The approach to cover letter writing in this book is different to others It focuses first on helping you ensure you have a stand out mindset which the author believes you need to have first then it teaches you how to write a stand out cover letter Whether you re just out of college changing industries mid life or charging up the corporate ladder you want to get the best job possible but how do you stand out when just about every job attracts hundreds or more applications Then there s the infamous ATS Automatic Tracking Software These days cover letters and resumes are frequently subject to ATS requirements But how do you write a letter that satisfies both human and bot eyes and at the same time stands out from the rest No matter how disillusioned or frustrated you may have felt about writing cover letters for jobs in the past now there s a new and better way Follow this simple cutting edge cover letter writing method and get the job you want In this book you will learn How to ensure you have a stand out mindset before you write your letterA free downloadable workbook to make your preparation fun and easy The exact step by step proven method others are using to create cover letters again and again Various cover letter examples How to access the 80% of jobs never advertised known as the hidden job marketSimple tips and strategies including how to make your letter stand out AND be ATS compliant Critical mistakes to avoid How it s possible to create a stand out cover letter without writing a single word What s stopping you from standing out and being hired for the job of your dreams Only knowing what to do differently to other job seekers and now this book will show you how Once you know the formula your job hunting days will soon be over ACT NOW Click the orange BUY NOW button at the top of this page
