Theories and Strategies for Teaching Creative Writing Online Tamara Girardi, Abigail G. Scheg, 2021-04-27 As the online world of creative writing teaching learning and collaborating grows in popularity and necessity this book explores the challenges and unique benefits of teaching creative writing online. This collection highlights expert voices who have taught creative writing effectively in the online environment to broaden the conversation regarding online education in the discipline and to provide clarity for English and writing departments interested in expanding their offerings to include online creative writing courses but doing so in a way that serves students and the discipline appropriately. Interesting as it is useful. Theories and Strategies for Teaching Creative Writing Online offers a contribution to creative writing scholarship and begins a vibrant discussion specifically regarding effectiveness of online education in the discipline.

Foundational Practices of Online Writing Instruction Beth L. Hewett, Kevin Eric DePew, 2015-04-15 Foundational Practices in Online Writing Instruction addresses administrators and instructors questions for developing online writing programs and courses. Written by experts in the field this book uniquely attends to issues of inclusive and accessible online writing instruction in technology enhanced settings as well as teaching with mobile technologies and multimodal compositions.

Writing in Online Courses Phoebe Jackson, Christopher Weaver, 2018-06-25 For scholars interested in the intersection of writing and online instruction Writing in Online Courses: How the Online Environment Shapes Writing and Practice examines both the theoretical and practical implications of writing in online courses. The essays in this collection reflect upon what the authors have learned about the synergistic way that writing helps to shape online instruction and how online instruction helps to shape the writing process. While many educators continue to question the reasons for teaching online these essays demonstrate the useful ways in which it enhances and informs student writing and learning From the vantage point of different disciplines the authors examine how the writing process is revealed and changed when it is placed at the center of an online learning environment These scholars and practitioners attest to the multiple ways that teaching online has enabled them to rethink how writing functions in their classes allowing them to pursue educational goals and student outcomes that may have been more difficult or even impossible to pursue in the traditional classroom Perfect for courses in Writing and Emerging Technologies English Online Topics in Composition and Rhetoric Approaches to Teaching Writing Technology in the Classroom Educational Technology for Teaching and Learning Foundations of Distance Education Composition Theory Introduction to Rhetoric and Composition Writing and the Teaching of Writing Journal of Teaching Writing, 2004 The Harcourt Brace Guide to Teaching Writing with Computers Campbell, 1998 Teaching Writing for All Brett Elizabeth Blake, Mary Ann Maslak, 2018-12-14 Teaching Writing for All Process Genres and Activities offers educators an informative anthology about writing instruction in the K 12 school setting The collection provides articles discussion questions and activities to deepen educators understanding of the writing process genres of writing and the uses of writing The text begins with articles that explore the evolution of writing instruction and effective practices which can help educators teach the process of writing to students The proceeding sections provide readings on the various genres of writing which are typically used in K 12 classrooms including narrative poetry expository and persuasive writing The book also addresses writing for the English language learner and students with learning disabilities The anthology leads the reader into writing in a technological world by closing with an article about facilitating online writing through the practice of journaling Teaching Writing for All is a valuable resource which provides students of the education profession with a collection of articles that offers information on history and genre writing for students in elementary middle and high school settings It is well suited for courses in education especially those with an emphasis on writing instruction Preparing Educators for Online Writing Instruction Beth L. Hewett, Christa Ehmann, 2004 Offers a theoretical justification for online writing instruction OWI as well as a detailed approach to training educators for such instruction Examples of training methods for both real time and asynchronous systems are accompanied by illustrations and screen shots The authors developers of online instructional programs at Smarthinking Inc also show how five main pedagogical principles can inform online instructor training independent of the platform being used The volume concludes with a glossary and findings from a study on how students use OWI Computers and the Teaching of Writing in American Higher Education, 1979-1994 Gail E. Hawisher, 1996 This book is a history composed of histories Its particular focus is the way in which computers entered and changed the field of composition studies a field that defines itself both as a research community and as a community of teachers This may have a somewhat sinister suggestion that technology alone has agency but this history made of histories is not principally about computers It is about people the teachers and scholars who have adapted the computer to their personal and professional purposes From the authors perspectives change in technology drives changes in the ways we live and work and we agents to a degree in control of our own lives use technology to achieve our human purposes REVIEW This book reminds those of us now using computers to teach writing where we have been and it brings those who are just entering the field up to date More important it will inform administrators curriculum specialists and others responsible for implementing the future uses of technology in writing instruction Computers and Composition

Teaching Writing Across the Curriculum Art Young,2006 Because Digital Writing Matters National Writing Project,Danielle Nicole DeVoss,Elyse Eidman-Aadahl,Troy Hicks,2010-10-07 How to apply digital writing skills effectively in the classroom from the prestigious National Writing Project As many teachers know students may be adept at text messaging and communicating online but do not know how to craft a basic essay In the classroom students are increasingly required to create web based or multi media productions that also include writing Since writing in and for the online realm often defies standard writing conventions this book defines digital writing and examines how best to integrate new technologies into writing instruction Shows how to integrate new technologies into classroom lessons Addresses the proliferation of writing in the digital age Offers a guide for improving students online writing skills The book is an important manual for understanding this new frontier of writing for teachers school leaders university faculty and teacher educators
