Mechanically Inclined Jeff Anderson,Lisa Thibodeaux,2024-12-09 Some teachers love grammar and some hate it but nearly all struggle to find ways of making the mechanics of English meaningful to kids As a middle school teacher Jeff Anderson also discovered that his students were not grasping the basics and that it was preventing them from reaching their potential as writers Jeff readily admits I am not a grammarian nor am I punctilious about anything so he began researching and testing the ideas of scores of grammar experts in his classroom gradually finding successful ways of integrating grammar instruction into writer s workshop Just in time for its 20th anniversary this long awaited second edition of Mechanically Inclined continues to merge the best of writer s workshop elements with relevant theory about how and why skills should be taught It connects theory about using grammar in context with practical instructional strategies explains why kids often don t understand or apply grammar and mechanics correctly focuses on attending to the high payoff or most common errors in student writing and shows how to carefully construct a workshop environment that can best support grammar and mechanics concepts In this new edition longtime colleague Lisa Thibodeaux joins Jeff in emphasizing four key elements for grammar instruction short daily instruction in grammar and mechanics within writer s workshop using high quality mentor texts to teach grammar and mechanics in context visual scaffolds including wall charts and visual cues that can be pasted into writer s notebooks regular short routines like express lane edits that help students spot and correct errors automatically

Comprising an overview of the research based context for grammar instruction a series of over forty detailed lessons updated research compelling new mentor texts and an appendix of helpful forms and instructional tools Mechanically Inclined is a boon to teachers regardless of their level of grammar phobia It shifts the negative rule plagued emphasis of much grammar instruction into one which celebrates the power and beauty these tools have in shaping all forms of writing School Library Journal ,2010

Ecosophy and Educational Research for the Anthropocene Alysha J. Farrell,2021-12-23

Problematizing the aims of education in the Anthropocene this text illustrates the value of relational psychoanalytic theory in the study and practice of education amidst the climate crisis Illustrating how dominant educational theory fails to acknowledge climate precarity and the consequences of living beyond the Earth s carrying capacity Ecosophy and Educational Research for the Anthropocene calls for a reorientation of scholarship to decentre the human subject The author discusses the evolution of intersubjective psychoanalysis to make a case for a turn to relational and psychoanalytically informed educational research Chapters foreground areas for educational researchers to consider in pursuing intersubjective inquiries into the affective dimensions of curriculum and pedagogy to foster an emergence of eco attunement and ecosophical educational research EER By framing an ecosophical approach this book enables educational leaders researchers and educators to fulfil their responsibility to engage in educational praxis which is contextually responsive relationally attuned and recognizant that we cannot be studied apart from our connections to the planet

Genre Transitions in Contemporary Fiction Selin Şencan,2025-09-09 This volume explores how contemporary fiction responds to global challenges by reshaping genre conventions and narrative forms The book brings together twelve chapters that examine themes of identity memory history speculative imagination and survival in works that cross boundaries of form nation and discipline Contributors examine a range of contemporary concerns offering critical insights into literary innovation in the twenty first century Through close readings of a diverse group of canonical and contemporary writers the collection highlights how hybrid narrative modes enable fiction to address shifting social realities Drawing from postcolonial feminist ecocritical trauma spatial memory speculative historical decolonial and posthumanist approaches the chapters explore how genre responds to crisis transformation and the demands of contemporary thought This book will appeal to scholars of English literature cultural and literary theory and genre studies offering both global perspectives and locally grounded analyses of literary form Its wide range of genres and applied critical frameworks also makes it a valuable resource for teaching and studying contemporary fiction

Integrating Virtual and Traditional Learning in 6-12 Classrooms Sandra Schamroth Abrams,2014-09-19 Integrating Virtual and Traditional Learning in 6-12 Classrooms introduces a model of layered literacies as a framework for describing and illustrating how students digital experiences can inform educational methods Through the lens of layered literacies educators can envision opportunities to draw upon adolescents out of school interests and activities to meaningfully integrate digital practices within academic contexts Such an approach facilitates innovative teaching inspired learning and successful pedagogy and it thoughtfully highlights the role of technology within mandated standards based instruction in public schools Combining foundational and contemporary theories supported by data from multiple studies of adolescent learning and honoring teachers and students experiences and resources this text helps educators reconceptualize the ways students learn through and with digital texts and negotiate the connection between online and offline spaces A companion website extends the discussion onto the screen engaging readers in an intertextual approach to learning that complements the concept of layering literacies across disciplines With a foreword by Jennifer Rowsell and an afterword by Bill Cope and Mary Kalantzis it will be of interest to experienced educators and administrators as well as postgraduate graduate and undergraduate students of education      Maze Runner Joyce Freidland,2014
