THEIR MASTER S CHILD LVI THE BOOK OF JINAYAT OFFENCES LVII THE BOOK OF AQDIYA JUDGMENTS Law, Society and Culture in the Maghrib, 1300-1500 David S. Powers,2002-09-30 Focusing on the Maghrib in the period between 1300 and 1500 in this 2002 book David Powers analyses the application of Islamic law through the role of the mufti To unravel the sophistication of the law he considers six cases which took place in the Marinid period on subjects as diverse as paternity fornication water rights family endowments the slander of the Prophet and disinheritance The source for these disputes are fatwas issued by the muftis which the author uses to situate each case in its historical context and to interpret the principles of Islamic law In so doing he demonstrates that contrary to popular stereotypes muftis were in fact dedicated to reasoned argument and sensitive to the manner in which law society and culture interacted The book represents a groundbreaking approach to a complex field It will be read by students of Islamic law and those interested in traditional Muslim societies Slaves Without Shackles Nur Sobers-Khan,2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Slaves Without Shackles The Distinguished Jurist's Primer Averroës,1994 A critical analysis of the opinions of famous Muslim jurists and their methodologies This is the first volume of the 12th century work translated from the Arabic Islamic Law and International Human Rights Law Anver M. Emon,Mark Ellis,Benjamin Glahn,2012-10-11 The relationship between Islamic law and international human rights law has been the subject of considerable and heated debate in recent years The usual starting point has been to test one system by the standards of the other asking is Islamic law compatible with international human rights standards or vice versa This approach quickly ends in acrimony and accusations of misunderstanding By overlaying one set of norms on another we overlook the deeply contextual nature of how legal rules operate in a society and meaningful comparison and discussion is impossible In this volume leading experts in Islamic law and international human rights law attempt to deepen the understanding of human rights and Islam paving the way for a more meaningful debate Focusing on central areas of controversy such as freedom of speech and religion gender equality and minority rights the authors examine the contextual nature of how Islamic law and international human rights law are legitimately formed interpreted and applied within a community They examine how these fundamental interests are recognized and protected within the law and what restrictions are placed on the freedoms associated with them By examining how each system recognizes and limits fundamental freedoms this volume clears the ground for exploring the relationship between Islamic law and international human rights law on a sounder footing In doing so it offers a challenging and distinctive contribution to the literature on the subject and will be an invaluable reference for students academics and policy makers engaged in the legal and religious debates surrounding Islam and the West The Distinguished Jurist's Primer Ibn Rushd,Imran Ahsan Khan Nyazee,1995-01 Ibn Rushd traces the issues of Islamic law elaborating the methodology of some of the greatest legal minds in Islam Terrorism and Justice Michael O'Keefe,C.
