Consumer Culture Reborn Martyn J. Lee,2003-09-02 Consumer Culture

Reborn focuses on consumption as the point at which economy and culture combine The book draws the often polarised discourses of political economy and cultural studies closer together in a historical context as a means of understanding our social situations as we approach the end of the millenium Taking as its central theme the ability of the capitalist mode of production to transform the material and social world which sustains it the book focuses on some of the ways in which this transformational impulse has altered the means by which ordinary people reproduce their life and their patterns of life

Neither a history book nor simply a book of theory Consumer Culture Reborn fuses elements of economic social and cultural theory in an historical perspective

undergraduate students studying domestic cultures as a cultural social or historical phenomenon It is well organised and easy to follow and can be dipped into with ease Popular Narrative Media Although home is central to most people's experience of everyday life the meaning of home is often taken for granted In this accessible and student friendly

introduction to domestic cultures Joanne Hollows surveys current thinking and approaches to demonstrate why home is so central to our lives Domestic Cultures examines which meanings and values have been associated with home and demonstrates how these have been transformed and reworked in different historical contexts The book shows that while certain meanings of domestic culture are frequently produced for us these can be negotiated and resisted through everyday home making practices She demonstrates how elements of domesticity have been dislocated and mobilized within public life This wide ranging text challenges a range of ideas about domestic culture It examines how the meanings of domestic life are produced across a range of discourses and practices from architecture lifestyle media and advertising to home decoration cooking and watching television The book demonstrates how domestic cultures are not only linked to particular ideas about gendered identities but how they are also differentiated by class race and sexuality Domestic Cultures is a key introductory text for media sociology and cultural studies students

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009

Sociological Abstracts ,2004-04 Consumer Culture And Tv Programming Robin Andersen,1995-11-30 To what extent does the advertising industry control what we see on TV What is the political and cultural environment that provides for the phenomenon of the corporate shaping of the mass media Robin Andersen addresses these questions which ultimately intertwine with the very concept of democracy How can citizens participate in political culture when the information they receive through their mass media is molded by corporate and commercial demands She discusses and analyzes the impact of the consumer imperative on popular news and TV programs and talk shows the psychology of consumer culture the differing narratives of the 1992 presidential election how representations of the Gulf War resembled advertisements and the overall escalating commercial imperative of the mass media Andersen has done a splendid job of accessibly presenting to mass audiences and students a subject of enormous gravity the steady penetration of marketing and advertising strategies into the very fabric of both news and entertainment television
