Summary of Kristin Kimball's *The Dirty Life Everest Media, 2022-05-10T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I had driven six hours from Manhattan to interview Mark a farmer who was growing the kind of local organic food that more and more people wanted to eat I was not disgusted but enlivened by what we were doing I was fascinated by the hard white purse of the stomach the neat coil of intestines and the lacy white caul fat 2 I went back to the farm the next morning to rake rocks in the tomatoes with Mark's assistant Michael It took two hours to pick all the rocks out of the soil and I was sore from the previous day's exertions 3 I was not a great cook at the time but I was a big fan of good food I appreciated it but I didn't have a steady relationship with it Food was more like a series of one night stands for me I was not sure the oven in my small studio was functional since in the seven years I'd lived there I'd never used it 4 The food was delicious but the crew was not impressed Food is the first wealth and if you grow it right you feel insanely rich no matter what you own

The Dirty Life Kristin Kimball, 2011-04-07 Kristin Kimball had no plans to become a farmer But then she met Mark and everything changed Within a few months she'd traded her high heels vegetarian diet and city apartment for a pair of boots a troupe of chickens and a shared commitment to turning 500 swampy acres into an organic community farm Passionate inspiring and beautifully written this is a true story of following your dreams and learning to grow your own happiness

The Dirty Life Kristin Kimball, 2011 When Manhattan writer Kristin Kimball arrived to interview an organic farmer called Mark on a Pennsylvanian farm she was wearing high heels and a crisp white shirt and had been vegetarian for thirteen years That evening she found herself helping him to slaughter a pig By the next morning she was tucking into sizzling homemade sausages drizzled with warm maple syrup and within a few months she'd given up her life in the city and moved with Mark their combined savings and a dozen chickens to a derelict farm in a remote corner of upstate New York They gave themselves a year to transform 500 badly neglected acres into an organic community farm Passionate inspiring and gorgeously written this is a story about falling in love with a man and with a different way to live complete with runaway piglets and dew fresh lettuce sceptical locals and a wedding in a hayloft
