Ticket To Somewhere The Other Face Of Truth Prequel:

The Ladies' Paradise: A Realistic Novel, The Sequel to "Piping Hot!" Emile Zola,2020-09-28 DENISE had walked from the Saint Lazare railway station where a Cherbourg train had landed her and her two brothers after a night passed on the hard seat of a third class carriage She was leading P p by the hand and Jean was following her all three fatigued after the journey frightened and lost in this vast Paris their eyes on every street name asking at every corner the way to the Rue de la Michodière where their uncle Baudu lived But on arriving in the Place Gaillon the young girl stopped short astonished Oh look there Jean said she and they stood still nestling close to one another all dressed in black wearing the old mourning bought at their father's death She rather puny for her twenty years was carrying a small parcel on the other side her little brother five years old was clinging to her arm while behind her the big brother a strapping youth of sixteen was standing empty handed Well said she after a pause that is a shop They were at the corner of the Rue de la Michodière and the Rue Neuve Saint Augustin in front of a draper's shop which displayed a wealth of colour in the soft October light Eight o'clock was striking at the church of Saint Roch not many people were about only a few clerks on their way to business and housewives doing their morning shopping Before the door two shopmen mounted on a step ladder were hanging up some woollen goods whilst in a window in the Rue Neuve Saint Augustin another young man kneeling with his back to the pavement was delicately plaiting a piece of blue silk In the shop where there were as yet no customers there was a buzz as of a swarm of bees at work Netochka Nezvanova Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2006-06-29 Netochka Nezvanova a Nameless Nobody tells the story of a childhood dominated by her stepfather Efimov a failed musician who believes he is a neglected genius The young girl is strangely drawn to this drunken ruin of a man who exploits her and drives the family to poverty But when she is rescued by an aristocratic family the abuse against Netochka's delicate psyche continues in a more subtle way condemning her to remain an outsider a solitary spectator of a glittering society Conceived as part of a novel on a grand scale Netochka Nezvanova remained incomplete after Dostoyevsky was exiled to Siberia for revolutionary activities in 1849 With its depiction of the suffering loneliness madness and sin that affect both rich and poor in St Petersburg it contains the great themes that were to dominate his later novels Youth's Companion ,1892 Matrix ,1928 Hoard's Dairyman ,1913 Esquire ,1997
