Strengthening School Counselor Advocacy and Practice for Important Populations and Difficult Topics Rausch, Meredith A., Gallo, Laura L., 2021-01-29 School counselors often struggle to feel confident in delivering effective assistance to students due to a variety of reasons that currently do not have enough research or information developed This leads to a struggle for counselors to adequately address tough and relevant issues With these issues remaining unaddressed or addressed less effectively there is a concern that school counselors cannot mitigate these issues due to not being adequately informed This can lead to a lifetime of consequences for students Strengthening School Counselor Advocacy and Practice for Important Populations and Difficult Topics presents emerging research that seek to answer the tough and often unaddressed questions target present day issues of student populations and prepare school counselors to feel confident and competent in their counseling and advocacy practice These chapters using the newest information available will address these concerns and provide the best counseling work possible for underserved populations While covering research on counseling for students with chronic illnesses mixed statuses family issues minority students

LGBTQ youth and more this book is ideal for school counselors counseling educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academics and students who are interested in school counseling and meeting the needs of diverse and important populations of students Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell, 2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends, titles and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities. The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics and activities including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards Sharing God's Blessing Robin Greenwood, 2016-01-21 A tried and tested resource for the renewal of the local church. Faced with the unsustainability of many inherited patterns of church the temptation may be to fall into despondency rather than seeking to regenerate patterns of mission and ministry. This book is the result of a two year research project aimed at enabling local churches to regain a sense of confidence through exploring God's blessing and how that might be shared with the communities they serve. In Part One Robin Greenwood explores the meaning of blessing and the power of face to face group conversations to transform church congregations. Part Two of the book contains outlines for five guided conversations for change on the theme of blessing. Part Three contains case study material of how this material has been used in different contexts including for Mission Action Planning MAP The Edge of the Precipice Paul Socken, 2013-08-19 Can a case be made for reading literature in the digital age? Does literature still matter in this era of instant information? Is it even possible to advocate for serious sustained reading with all manner of social media distracting us, fragmenting our concentration and demanding short, rapid communication? In The Edge of the Precipice Paul Socken brings together a thoughtful group of writers, editors, philosophers, librarians, archivists and literary critics from Canada, the US, France, England, South Africa and Australia to contemplate the state of literature in the twenty first century. Including essays by outstanding contributors such as Alberto Manguel, Mark Kingwell, Lori Saint Martin, Sven Birkerts, Katia Grubisic, Drew Nelles and J. Hillis Miller, this collection presents a range of perspectives about the importance of reading literature today. The Edge of the Precipice is a passionate, articulate and entertaining collection that reflects on the role of literature in our society and asks if it is now under siege Contributors include Michael Austin Newman University Sven Birkerts author Stephen Brockmann Carnegie Mellon University Vincent Giroud University of Franche Comt Katia Grubisic poet Mark Kingwell University of Toronto Alberto Manguel author J Hillis Miller University of California Irvine Drew Nelles editor in chief Maisonneuve Keith Oatley University of Toronto Ekaterina Rogatchevskaia British Library Leonard Rosmarin Brock University Lori Saint Martin translator Universit du Qu bec Montr al Paul Socken University of Waterloo and Gerhard van der Linde University of South Africa
