Technoromanticism

Technoromanticism Richard Coyne, 1999 The author explores the spectrum of romantic narrative that pervades the digital age from McLuhan's utopian vision of social reintegration by electronic communications to the claims of cyberspace to offer new realities. Populating these narratives are cyborgs, computerized agents, avatars and characters that have putative digital identities.

Pluralist Desires Philipp Löffler, 2015 Excavates the contemporary revival of 19th century cultural pluralism revealing how American novelists since the 1990s have appropriated the historical novel in the pursuit of selfhood rather than truth fundamentally repositioning the genre in American culture.

Metamorphoses of (New) Media

Julia Genz, Ulrike Küchler, 2016-01-14 The current success story of new media and the ongoing digitalisation of our world provide an illuminating starting point for the discussion of the powerful revolutions in our media and media uses initiated by the introduction of a new medium. How do new media evolve and how do they relate to established old media and media uses? What does the rise of new media and media uses imply for other discourses? And not least which methodological and theoretical approaches help us to understand these developments? Metamorphoses of New Media offers an international and interdisciplinary range of studies on these questions. In examining the effects of new media and media uses in fields such as social discourse, transmediality and aesthetics, the essays in this collection engage with a great variety of examples from political debate on Twitter to digital storytelling and the game-like experience of DVDs. What these diverse perspectives share, however, is an approach to Metamorphoses of New Media as an ongoing recursive process of change that initiates dialogue and casts light on existing discursive medial and aesthetic models.

Walking the Möbius Strip Johanna Heil, 2016 Walking the Möbius Strip locates Richard Powers's fiction at the crossroads of postmodern and post-postmodern aesthetics and argues that this paradigm shift shapes the models of knowledge and understanding that underwrite his work. The readings of Plowing the Dark, Galatea 2.2 and The Echo Maker are inspired by Jacques Lacan's image of cognition as a Möbius strip on which different forms of propositional and non-propositional knowledge bleed into and depend upon one another. Drawing on feminist epistemology and psychoanalysis, this study highlights Powers's interest in the non-propositional aspects of cognition that is in all that escapes the frameworks of scientific empiricism and can only be known through the mediation of fictional narrative. It reveals a deep dissatisfaction in the novels with the suggestion that knowledge and understanding must be objective and rational and elucidates Powers's idea that fiction can be a powerful tool for integrating various kinds of knowledge.

From Technological to Virtual Art Frank Popper, 2007 Frank Popper traces the development of immersive interactive new media art from its antecedents through today's digital multimedia networked art.
