The Deliberative Practitioner Encouraging Participatory Planning Processes:

The Deliberative Practitioner John Forester,1999 Citizen participation in such complex issues as the quality of the environment neighborhood housing urban design and economic development often brings with it suspicion of government anger between stakeholders and power plays by many as well as appeals to rational argument Deliberative planning practice in these contexts takes political vision and pragmatic skill Working from the accounts of practitioners in urban and rural settings North and South John Forester shows how skillful deliberative practices can facilitate practical and timely participatory planning processes In so doing he provides a window onto the wider world of democratic governance participation and practical decision making Integrating interpretation and theoretical insight with diverse accounts of practice Forester draws on political science law philosophy literature and planning to explore the challenges and possibilities of deliberative practice

The Professionalization of Public Participation Laurence Bherer,Mario Gauthier,Louis Simard,2017-03-27 The Professionalization of Public Participation is an edited collection of essays by leading and emerging scholars examining the emerging profession of public participation professionals Public participation professionals are persons working in the public private or third sectors that are paid to design implement and or facilitate participatory forums The rapid growth and proliferation of participatory arrangements call for expertise in the organizing of public participation The contributors analyze the professionalization of this practice in different countries United States France Canada Italy and the United Kingdom to see how their actions challenge the development of participatory arrangements Designing such processes is a delicate activity since it may affect not only the quality of the processes and their legitimacy but also their capacity to influence decision making

Future Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Gregory Bracken,Paul Rabé,Nurul Azreen Azlan,2025-10-01 Future Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West investigates some of the greatest challenges facing society in the twenty first century including the struggle for rights and recognition by indigenous peoples women migrants and the young as well as the dampening effects some government responses to COVID 19 have had on artistic freedom and citizen participation The ill effects of digitisation on citizenship however are tempered by some more positive approaches from grass roots activities Perhaps the most acute challenge facing the world today is climate change an issue that can be both positive and negative depending on how we respond to it All the papers in this book share a people centred approach based around Michel Foucault s Care of the Self

The Encyclopedia of Housing, Second Edition Andrew T. Carswell,2012-05-31 Since publication of the groundbreaking Encyclopedia of Housing in 1998 many issues have assumed special prominence within this field and indeed within the global economy. For instance the global economic meltdown was spurred in large part by the worst subprime mortgage crisis we've seen in our history. On a more positive note the sustainability movement and green development has picked up considerable steam and given the priorities and initiatives of the current U.S. administration this will only grow in importance and increased attention has been given in recent years to the topic of indoor air quality. Within the past decade as well the Baby Boom Generation began its march into retirement and senior citizenship which will have increasingly broad implications for retirement communities and housing assisted living facilities aging in place livable communities universal design and the like. Finally within the last twelve years an emerging generation of young scholars has been making significant contributions to the field. For all these reasons and more we are pleased to present a significantly updated and expanded Second Edition of The Encyclopedia of Housing.

Handbook on Policy, Process and Governing H.K. Colebatch, 2018-12-28 This Handbook covers the accounts by practitioners and observers of the ways in which policy is formed around problems how these problems are recognized and understood and how diverse participants come to be involved in addressing them. H.K. Colebatch and Robert Hoppe draw together a range of original contributions from experts in the field to illuminate the ways in which policies are formed and how they shape the process of governing.
